WANTED.—AGENTS FOR "THE SECRET SERVICE, THE FIELD, THE PRISON AND THE ESCAPE." By Alexander R. Richardson, New York Tribune Correspondent. The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years, traveling through the South in the secret service of the Union cause at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture by the Confederates and imprisonment for months in seven different jails; his escape and almost miraculous journey of 1,000 miles. It will abound in startling events, and contain more of the fresh, interesting portions of the war than any other work yet published.

Veteran, Ladies, energetic young men, and especially soldiers and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it peculiarly adapted to their condition. We have agents clearing $150 per month, which we will prove to any doubting applicant. Send for circulars. Address JONES, BROS. & CO.,

N. E. corner Sixth and Minor streets,

Philadelphia, Pa.

An opportunity to purchase a superior class of saddle and draft animals, at far less than their true value, is now offered to the public.

Though the majority of them are sound and serviceable, they are no longer required in the army, and must be sold.

Many of the mules were bought in the beginning of the war, when young, accompanied the armies in all their marches and camps, and are thoroughly broken, hardened by exercise, gentle and familiar, from being so long surrounded by the soldiers.

Animals will be sold singly.

Sales to commence at 10 a. m.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.—With corrupt, discolored and vitiated blood, you are sickly and feeble. It may burst out in pimples or sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health in good blood is impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula or Kings'-Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Blotches, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Humors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis, or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Disease. Try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures its bad disorders.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no medicinal properties whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we sell this compound "Sarsaparilla" and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We think we have it. Its power to cure lies in the virtues which are investible by the ordinary process of the disease it is intended to cure. We can only assure the sick, that we offer them the best alterative which we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe, it is by far the most effectual purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is useless to mention the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by S. A. FAHNESTOCK & Son, and by all Druggists. jy15-2mwsw-sod

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(FROM YESTERDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.)

The United States Episcopal Convention.

The General Convention of the Episcopal Church, to be held in Philadelphia in October next, will be attended with great interest and more or less excitement. Its proceedings will be exceedingly important. It is evident that there will be an effort made to reunite the North and the South, the same as the Churches of the Union of Rebellion was raised against the flag of the Union. There is to be a grand convocation of the leaders of the Episcopal Church, in which bygones are to be bygones, and the past to be buried in oblivion.

According to the Rev. Dr. John Cotton Smith, in his reply to the Bishop's Pastoral, an effort will be made to introduce a new canon, intended to allow to the clergy of this Church more liberal relations with those of other denominations. This movement will meet with vigorous resistance as well as hearty support. The clergymen identified with it are well known for their perseverance and independence, as well as for a tendency to controversial discussion; while the Bishop will be supported in the course he has adopted by the vast body of his clergy.

The return of delegates from the Southern diocese will be another and still more important feature of the coming Convention, and there are questions to be considered which will add to make the occasion one of special interest.

It is stated, on what is believed to be perfectly reliable authority, that letters have been received, now, from the Bishops of the Episcopal Church in nearly all of the Southern Dioceses lately in rebellion against the Government, in favor of reunion at the General Convention without any formality whatsoever. In other words the Southern delegates, clerical and lay, are desirous of resuming their seats in the Convention precisely as if secession and the war were things that had never been.

That is the programme in the House of Bishops, but whether it will be adopted by the House of Clerical and lay Deputies or not, is open to conjecture.

Hat to Come Down.

Among the "common cases" brought before Mayor Lowry to-day was a poor looking creature named John Miller, who had been arrested during the night for drunkenness. John looked very penitent, when brought forth for judgment, and he case being satisfactorily made out he was ordered to pay a fine of one dollar and costs. He acknowledged his error, but plead most piteously for clemency, alleging that he was penniless, and did not want to go to jail. The Mayor naturally felt some sympathy for him, but not wishing to make "fish of one and flesh of another," told John that he would have to pay up or go to jail—there was no other alternative. He took another earnest appeal, but without avail, and the clerk was ordered to make out the commitments. The mittimus was prepared and about being handed to an officer, when the Mayor, unfortunately, penniless John) thrust his hand into a pocket reaching almost to his knee, and pulled forth an immense wallet filled with fifty, one hundred and five hundred dollar interest bearing notes, and started the clerk by handing him a fifty dollar bill from which to take the fine! In addition to the fine in cash, John had several deeds in his possession, showing that he was seized of considerable real estate. The amount of the fine and costs was taken from the "fifty," and after John had received his change he left the office, no doubt deeply regretting that his "sympathetic dodge" had failed him for once.

A Frightful Fall.—Catamountsblain.

On Monday night, about eleven o'clock, a lad named Davis, son of Mr. Slack Davis, teacher, residing at the corner of Market and Third streets, got up in his sleep, and climbing through an open window in the third story, fell to the paved yard below, a distance of twenty-five or thirty feet. His father was in the adjoining room at the time, and had not yet retired to bed. When the boy was picked up he was found to be severely injured. There was a frightful contusion on the forehead, the nose was broken, the upper lip cut entirely through, and a front tooth in the lower jaw had been broken out. The left collar bone was dislocated, and the left wrist was badly fractured. He was also badly bruised internally in the region of the bowels. When picked up he was quite conscious, and strange as it may appear complained only of the internal pain.

Dr. Rogers was called and dressed the wounds of the unfortunate boy. He is still under the doctor's treatment, and although in a critical condition there are hopes that he will recover. The skull was not fractured, and the greatest danger to be apprehended is from inflammation of the bowels. He is about ten years of age, and has been frequently known to walk about in his sleep. His escape from instant death was most miraculous.

A Singular Freak.

A young woman, hailing from Cincinnati, and giving the name of Dora Lee, was arrested by the police to-day, while walking through the streets in her "stocking feet." She was tolerably well dressed, and held in her hand a pair of slippers, neatly wrapped up in paper. Why she did not put these indispensable articles upon her feet is a matter not easily explained. She wore a pair of nice white hose, and by holding up her skirts showed a tolerably neat foot and ankle as she proceeded on her novel promenade. On her way down Diamond alley she stepped into a barber shop and made a request that the "boss" should trim her corns! Not wishing to undertake this delicate operation, the Knight of the razor modestly declined, and Dora left the shop in disgust. She did not travel much further until she fell into the hands of the police, when she was locked up for a hearing. When she found herself "behind the bars" she began to weep bitterly, and complain of the unjust treatment to which she had been subjected. She was evidently under the influence of liquor, but whether drunk or crazy she succeeded in creating a sensation.

Shocking Accident.—A man named Cooper Knoblanch met with a terrible accident at McKeesport on Friday. He was riding down a hill on top of a load of grain, when the vehicle upset, and the bed of the wagon catching his ankle, it was fractured and crushed in a horrible manner. The bones protruded some three inches, and the sight which the unfortunate man presented was indeed a shocking one. He was hauled in a wagon to Dr. Walter's office, and had his injuries dressed, after which he was removed to "Walter's Surgical Institute," where he now is. His injury is a most serious one, but it is believed he will recover.

Ravages of the Caterpillar.—The caterpillars have almost entirely destroyed the foliage of the outer row of shade trees on the north side of the county jail. These trees are of the linden variety, and the caterpillars seem to have an exclusive taste for them, since they have not disturbed any of the shade trees on the ground. The situation, against which many persons are prejudiced on account of their supposed deliterious effects on health, have not only stripped the ravages of the caterpillars, but seem to be proof against all other kinds of insects. Cannot something be done to save these beautiful lindens from total destruction?

A New Postoffice.—The Postmaster General has ordered the establishment of a Postoffice at Bedford Springs, and appointed Albert G. Allen postmaster. The office will prove a vast convenience to the visitors at the Springs.

"He Never 'Smiled' Again."

BY G. W. R.

The Whisky tax at length "came down"
The "Rangle-foot" cried,
Which made the loper bitterly frown
And smash his demijohn.

He and his—for whiter grew his face
As these had reckless been—
Who did this war on whisky wage
"He never 'smiled' again."

There stood three bottles on the shelf,
Which I swore me not to save,
They too must join the one himself
Had smashed upon the grave.
Before him piled those bottles rose,
But where was pity then!
They all felt victims to the curse
"He never 'smiled' again."

He'd often sat where flasks went round,
And heard the HERAS song,
Had there his cares and sorrows drowned
Amid the noisy throng.
But now he oft was seen to weep,
And sighs rose now and then,
And bottle-ghosts disturbed his sleep:
"He never 'smiled' again."

Years since that time closed o'er the trace
Of drams once fondly poured,
And water took the whisky's place
At many a table'd board.
Rum, which he loved in former years,
Was left to other men:
"He with new hand saw hair years:
"He never 'smiled' again."

In a Critical Condition.—A short, robust man, dressed in the garb of a laborer, was found in the streets last night, by the police, so drunk as to be helpless. He gave his name as Rogers, himself. He was locked up in the watch house, and this morning was found in a dying condition. Dr. Rogers was summoned to attend him,
