SPECIAL NOTICES.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.—With corrupted blood the whole system is poisoned, boils and sickness come. It only turns to a Pimple or Sore, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and sickly. For pimples, Blotches, Sores and Ulcers, Fever Sores, Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Ringworm, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Humors, Sore Eyes, Pimply Disfigurements, such as Scurvy, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Scrofula, also Syphilis, or Venereal Disease, Mercurial Disease and Mercurial Disorders, DR. ATTEN'S SARSAPARILLA, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures these disorders.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they took only concentrated Iodide of Potassium, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment all following the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla sold for one dollar per bottle, until the name itself has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla" and intend to supply such a medicine as shall restore the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We wish we knew of something better than it was virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. We can only assure the sick that we offer them the best alterative which we know how to produce, and we refer them to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral as the most effectual purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is useless to prosecute its merits in this community, where its virtues are constantly exhibited.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by B. A. FAHNESTOCK & SON, and by all Druggists.

TESTIMONIAL FROM L. M. GOTSCHALK.—After having played on the Piano of the Messrs. Knabe & Co., it is impossible not acquired for them the eminent reputation which they enjoy. The Piano of their manufacture, on which I have played, are exceedingly remarkable for their qualities of tone. The Bass is powerful without harshness, and the upper notes are clear and harmoniously mellow (un timbre). and I do not hesitate to express in regard to these instruments my entire satisfaction, and to declare that they are equal, if not superior, to the best manufactured in Europe or this country, by the most celebrated makers. The Committee further suggested that the first lecture of the course be delivered on the second Tuesday of September, and that the Secretary of this Society be instructed to notify the persons nominated without delay.

On motion the above report was received and adopted. The notice will be given of the time and place of each lecture. A Committee, consisting of Dr. J. B. Clark, Rev. T. X. Orr, and Prof. J. H. Eaton, was appointed to prepare and forward a communication to the Temperance Convention soon to assemble at Saratoga, State of New York.

It was moved and carried that a committee of five be appointed to prepare a form of remonstrance against the granting of any license for the sale of intoxicating liquors, and to report the same at the next regular meeting, with the names of two members from each congregation in the city to circulate the same in their respective churches, and secure the signatures of all interested in the cause. The Committee appointed by the Chair consists of Rev. W. Lynch, Col. J. B. Clark, Prof. L. H. Eaton, Hon. Robert McKnight, and Benjamin Hackney, Esq.

Several addresses were made by clergymen and others, after which the meeting adjourned, with the benediction by the Rev. W. Lynch.

Severe Storms—Damages by Lightning and High Winds.

On Friday about noon, a severe thunder storm burst over portions of Versailles, Elizabeth and Mifflin townships. The wind was quite high, and the rain fell in torrents, doing considerable damage to the grain, fruit and other crops. In McKeesport, the Tremont House, kept by Wm. McMullen, was struck by lightning, and several persons were considerably stunned, but fortunately no one was seriously injured. The lightning struck the corner of the house, tearing off a portion of the corner, about two feet square, and descending the tin conductor buried itself in the ground. A hay stack, belonging to a German tenant of Mr. Risher, on the opposite side of the river, in Mifflin township, was struck by lightning and entirely consumed.

On Friday night about nine o'clock, another heavy storm began, and raged with considerable violence in several sections of the county. In the cities the lightning was incessant, and very vivid, but we hear of no damage being done. The rain was very heavy, flooding the streets and gutters. A severe tornado swept over portions of Union, Lower St. Clair and Peebles townships, and very considerable damage was done, though we think there are no lives lost so far as we have been able to learn. The tornado seems to have been confined to a narrow belt of land, its ravages being plainly marked through Union and Lower St. Clair townships, and then crossing the Monongahela river into Peebles township. Trees were twisted off, chimney tops blown down, fences prostrated, and the fruit and vegetation considerably damaged. The damage about Oakland, and in Scotch Bottom, was quite extensive. The storm appeared to have spent its fury before reaching Wilkins township, as the damage there was trifling, although the wind blew unusually strong for a short time.

The Proposed Soldiers' Monument.

We have received the following communication from Mr. George Burns, Chairman of the Committee appointed, under a resolution of the late Union County Convention, to superintend the erection of a suitable monument to the memory of the heroes from Allegheny county who fell in the late war:

CLINTON, July 27, 1865.

Editors Gazette:—In your paper of Monday last I find an editorial reflecting on the action of the committee for erecting a monument to the memory of our noble dead. There is no person more mortified at the delay and seeming indifference of the people in regard to this noble work, than myself; and as I was appointed Chairman of the Executive Committee for erecting a monument, it is necessary for me to explain the reason for the delay, so that the public may judge who to blame. As soon as Mr. Brown, Chairman of the Union Convention, appointed the committee, in accordance with my resolution, and I was notified of my appointment, I called on Mr. Brown, and on consulting with him and Mr. Herron, who was a member of the committee, we decided to call the Executive Committee together on Saturday, the 8th inst., at eleven o'clock a. m., at the office of Mr. Herron. The members of the committee were notified accordingly, but there were none of the members attended, but Mr. Davis, Mr. Herron, and myself, and not having a quorum we could not do anything; and when there seemed to be such an indifference in the matter that we could not even get the Executive Committee together to start the matter, I concluded that it was useless to push it any further. But I am glad to see that there is going to be another effort, and I hope with better success. Can it be possible that the loyal County of Allegheny, which has done so much to redeem our country from the hands of traitors, should be behind her sister counties in this noble work? I have a higher opinion of the patriotism of the old Banner County than this.

GEORGE BURNS.

A Brutal Fight—Mad Tailored Dogs.

On Thursday evening a most disgraceful and exceedingly brutal fight took place in South Pittsburgh, at the end of the Monongahela bridge, between two mill hands, named Robert McKibbin and Hugh Chambers. The men disagreed during the day while at work, and arranged to "fight it out" in the evening. They met and fought for a considerable time, in regular "rough and tumble" style, utterly ignoring all the rules of the ring. When the men got fired bustering each other with their fists, they began to bite one another like dogs. McKibbin had the end of his nose bitten entirely off, and one of his fingers bitten through to the bone. Chambers had the upper part of one of his ears torn and lacerated in a dreadful manner, and when the parties were separated their persecutor's scarry and disgusting sight—both dripping with blood, and suffering great pain. A number of persons witnessed the brutal exhibition; and it is not their credit that they did not separate the parties sooner. They no doubt considered, and with some show of reason, that if men chose to eat each other up, it was none of their business. No arrests were made, as the police are rather scarce in that locality. The crime of mayhem, which is becoming quite frequent in our midst, is punished under the criminal code by long imprisonment in the penitentiary, but as both these parties are equally guilty there is not likely to be any prosecution. It is said that McKibbin repaired to the office of a surgeon in this city and had the end of his nose stuck on, with some prospects of its remaining there, to prevent the frightful disfigurement which the loss of even the smallest portion of that tasteful organ occasions. What the other man did with his torn ear we are not advised, but we presume some doctor will get a good fee for patching it up. The question of "superiority" between these two men still remains unsettled, and from the nature of the injuries mutually inflicted, it would be difficult to determine which is the better dog.

The Markets—High Prices.

There are no people in the country that have greater cause for complaining of the high prices demanded for every article of consumption than those of Pittsburgh and vicinity. There is an undisguised combination among gardeners and others to keep every thing at the very highest figure, and some of them have told the writer that they will continue to do so "as long as the
