The Flord, The Louisvargh Gazette. In our morning edition of the that ctl ai gaine account of the "opening in the rens," which occurred yester tay evening about haif-past four o'clock, and lasted without intermission until about half-past six. It excected any rain storm within the memory of the "older inhabitant," while it continued, and the damage to property along the low streams, especially in Allegheny, is very great.

The large sewer which was built from the front of the Penitemiary to the Allegheny river in Allegheny, was heapable of conducting the water off, underground; the track of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chnesgo Reilway, from the outer depot into Federal street, being graded below the level of the Commons, became a vast surface conduit, and a torrout of water came, until, at the crossing of Marion Avenue, the water was some two lest deep, and about forty feet broad. One portion of the current reabout intermission until about half-past six. It ex-RATES OF ADVERTISING. ONE SQUARE—STANDING MATTER:

GAZETTE TERMS:

About a month ago, a man named C. G. Walsh alias James Welsh, was arrested in Cleveland on a charge of passing counterful and from the west, and that when these opposite currents met, then "the windows of heaven stal currency. After being incarcerated in were opened."
At Wood's Run, there was a heavy shower, but the heaviest rain did not extend much further west. We have not heard how far east the storm extended, but Irdge by our rivers—which are not perceptibly affected—that the lawyer, who entered into bonds for his appearnee to answer the charge. Walsh then left the lity, and was not heard from again until Wedthe storm extenses, our property which are not perceptibly affected—that the heaviest rain was of limited extent, geographically. No serious damage to roads or crops, is esday of last week, when he visited the resiace of Mr. Reuben Heister, Postmaster at cally. No serious damage to roads or crops, is therefore, to be apprehended.

The Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad have a strong force of men at work, this morning, repairing the damages. As they have still two tracks uninjured, at the point where the wash took place, there will be no impediment; the testing of the road. oadhead Postoffice, in Chartiers township, and made arrangements with him for the pastur Reister, who considered that everything was orily arranged until a few days ago. where the wash took place, there will be no im-pediment to the travel or business of the road. The Street Commissioner of Allegheny will find employment for his "recruits," for some days, in finding the bottom—or rather the top—of the street above named. when a man calling himself John Gray, waited upon bim and after stating that he was an inde-pendent detective of gambiers and counterfeirs, informed Mr. Heistar that the borse had been soden from a farmer in Washington coun-try, and that he was in search of it to restore it to the rightful owner. Mr. Heister, not doubt-ing the veracity of the "detectire," delivered up the horse, and thought nothing further of the matter until yesterday, when he happened to meet with officer John Thornburg, of the May-or's police, and informed him of the circum-stance. The officer explained to Mr. Heister-the position into which he had been unwitingly drawn, and informed him that he was still re-sponsible to Walsh for the horse. Mr. Helster, who did not ohose to assume any responsibility in the matter, called upon the Mayor, and stated the case to him, when a warrant was issued for fray's arrest, which was effected by officer Thorsburg during the day. At the hearing Gray reiterated the assertion that he was an independent detective, but as he was unable to exhibit any proofs, the Mayor very properly declined giving it any credence. Eventually, however, a compromise was effected by Gray returning the horse to Mr. Heister, who will advertise him and endeavor to ascertain if it has been stolen. ETTERS REMAINING UNCLAIM stolen.

Gray appears to have very suspicious antecedents. In April last he was arrested by one of Captain Foster's detectives on a charge of blackmailing a descrier, but through the absence of the necessary witnesses was discharged. He is now at large and the public should guard against the machinations of this self-constituted "detective," who is undon'telly living on his wits. During his sojourn in this city he will be strictly watched, and any further sharp practice on his part may result in unpleasant consequences.

Policeman Discharged.—Thursday night a member of the "emergency" police, named Hofiman, while on duty on Penn street, near the Polit, grossly insulted the wives of two of our most respectable citizens. The Mayor was informed of the outrage, and yesterday afternoon gave Hofiman as hearing, when his guilt being satisfectorily proven, he was summarily dismissed from the police force. Hoffman has been but a short time from the ermy. The Mayor stated that the setra police had been engaged to prevent such outrages, and expressed his regret that he had ever commissioned Hoffman to act as a police officer. Another member of the force was supposed to be connected with the outrage, but he succeeded in proving his innecence of the charge. Death of Two Deckhands on the Arme-Death of Two Deckhands on the Armenia.—The Memphis Argus of Sinday last anounces the death of two men from Pittsburgh, as follows: Yesterday afternoon while the steamer Armenia was some distance below this city, two deck, hands, named. Bilehard Ulcary an Richard Ferrel, were taken anddenly sick, and expired in a few minutes. They had been upon Red river or this steamer, and it seems had there contracted the sickness which proved so fatal tothem. They had each been complaining of beting: unwell, but were enabled to be uponia walk around antil within a short time of their death.
They were buried at the fool of Fresident Idani, which is about twelty in face. Consy Joo
