The E-press says it learns from good authority that Wade Hampton is now hiring every sube bod-fied negro who was once his sitvor. He pays men-ter dollars a month and women eight dollars, furnishing houses, and not board for taoh. He ex-pects to raise thirty bales of cotion, where, bo-fore the war, he raised from thirteen hundred to diffeen hundred bales. The small erop expected grows out of the fact that it is only until the close of the war that he has been able to resume work upon his plantsilon. Wade Hampton de-clares it his intention to give free negro labor a fair trial, and that he shall hope for the best re-sults from the weges system until it fails. He has alrendy dissuaded many of his countryman from the folly of emigration.
