WANTED.—AGENTS FOR "THE SECRET SERVICE, THE FIELD, THE DUNGEON AND THE ESCAPE." BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON, New York Tribune Correspondent. The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years, traveling through the South in the secret service of the Tribune at the outbreak of the war, with six months and Rebel Prisons North and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture; his imprisonment for 20 months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape and almost miraculous journeys by night of nearly 1600 miles. It will abound in daring exploits, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war than any other work yet published.

Soldiers, sailors, energetic young men, and specially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it peculiarly adapted to their position. We have agents clearing $100 per month, while we will guarantee to any desirable applicant. Send for circular. Address, JONES, BROS. & CO.,
