Many of the mules were bought in the beginning of the war, when young, accompanied the armies in all their marches and battles, and are thoroughly broken, hardened by exercise, gentle and familiar, from being so long surrounded by the soldiers.

Animals will be sold singly.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ CLEANSE THE BLOOD.—With corrupt, diseased and vitiated blood, you are sicks all over. It may burst out in Pimples or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula or Kings' Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, Saltrheum's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Humors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis, or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases. TRY AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures these disorders.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often positive properties whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla," and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We think we have ground for believing it has virtues which, when fairly tested by the mercury run of the disease it is intended to cure. We ask only a fair trial, and the cures we offer the best alternative which we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe, it is by far the most effectual purifier of the blood ever placed before any body.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is unnecessary here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by B. A. FAHNESTOCK & Co., and by all Druggists. ly15:d&wnovsod

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(FROM YESTERDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.)

The Late Fire—Excitement at the Monongahela House.

The fire on Water street, elsewhere noticed, created intense excitement at the Monongahela House. Happening at an hour when most of the guests were in their beds, especially the ladies, the consternation was much greater than it would otherwise have been. Mayor Lowry, with commendable foresight, at once detailed a police force sufficient to guard every door, and placed them in charge of officer Herron, with instructions to prevent, as far as possible, all ingress and egress. Had it not been for this precaution, ladies would have rushed pell-mell into the streets, in their night dresses, and thieves would have entered by scores and pillaged the hotel. As it was, many suspicious persons were driffed before the officers were stationed, and were in the act of leaving with bundles, trunks, &c., containing valuables, and compelled to leave their loads behind. Many rooms were filled with smoke, the halls were crowded with men, women and children, and excitement and confusion reigned in all parts of the building. Many of the ladies came down in their night clothes, others were but partially dressed, and all were filled with the utmost alarm. Many amusing scenes were witnessed. One lady had managed to get her clothing all on, or nearly so, but in her excitement she had placed her hoops outside of her dress, and cut a most ludicrous figure. A gentleman, whose sense of propriety had evidently been shocked by the appearance of this lady, politely called her attention to the fact that her "duplex" was in the wrong place, much to the amusement of those who witnessed the occurrence. On discovering her "situation," she fled to the first accessible room, to adjust her apparel. Several ladies had been wandering about the halls like ghosts, wholly unconscious of the fact that they were still a part and parcel of mankind, and when the excitement began to abate, their eyes were quickly attracted "under the circumstances," and in the case of many of them, they were (almost) naked." They fled incontinently into some bath rooms, where they availed a supply of "fig leaves," generously furnished by some of their more fortunate sisters. While these scenes were being enacted, there were others transpiring tending to show how cool some persons are under the most trying circumstances. An awkward gawk of a fellow, with an air of the most supreme indifference, stepped up to the bar tender, who was keeping an eye on his effects during the excitement, and bawled out "Look a-here, sir—if this 'ere tavern burns down, is there any other shanty in this 'ere town what a feller can get his breakfast at?" It is needless to say that the interrogatory elicited no answer.

Had it not been for the presence of the police, immense loss would have been sustained, as a number of well known thieves were seen on the ground, anxious to "help"—themselves. Officer Herron and those under him, received the warmest commendations of the Mayor, and those of the proprietor, Mr. Crossan, for the manner in which they discharged their duties.

A Queer Case.

An Irishman named Michael Malone was brought before Mayor Lowry to-day on a charge of surety of the peace, preferred by Alice Hays. The prosecutrix resides on St. Clair street, and alleges that Michael has been pursuing and annoying her for some time past, with a view of obtaining her hand in marriage. She has repeatedly told him that she would not marry him, and did not want to have anything further to do with him. On Saturday, however, he visited her again to press his suit, and on being ordered away he became very demonstrative and threatened to kill her if she would not marry him. Fearing that he might put his threats into execution, she determined to have him arrested. Michael denied the allegations of the prosecutrix in toto, and asserts quite a different state of facts. He alleges that Alice has been anxious to marry him, and that she has used every persuasion to induce him to do so. On Saturday, at the request of some of her friends, he visited her, and on learning that she was "in the wind" he gave her to understand that it would be impossible for her to "come the giraffe" over him. He alleges that her friends entered into a conspiracy to force a marriage, but finding him one who awoke for them, she resorted to the expedient of suing him for threatening her life. He says he has no more notion of killing her than he has of playing himself in a pool in which he will be obliged to step her alive. He gave bail for trial at court, and here the matter rests for the present.

Important Decision.

Judge Sterrett, on Saturday, rendered a decision in the case of the borough of Birmingham vs. the Pittsburgh and Birmingham Passenger Railway. This was a case stated, to test the liability of the railway company to keep Carson street clear and in perpetual good repair. The charter of the company provides that "they shall keep so much of the streets as may be used by them in perpetual good repair." The borough ordinance, granting the use of Carson street to the company, provides that "they shall keep it in perpetual good repair, from curb to curb, its whole length." The company was willing to keep the proper roadway in good repair, but denied the obligation to cleanse it or remove the accumulations of dirt thereon. The borough authorities cleansed the street, and claimed to be reimbursed for the amount expended, $125. The Court was of the unanimous opinion that the company should not only keep the street in good repair, but cleanse it at so; that it might be in good traveling condition. Judgment was ordered to be entered for the plaintiff, but the case will probably go to the Supreme Court. R. B. Carnahan, Esq., appeared for the plaintiff, and Hamilton and Acheson for defendants.

Arrest of a Thief.

On Sunday night the police arrested a German named Adam Tidman, on suspicion of larceny. He had in his possession a huge carpet sack, filled with clothing and other articles. Among the articles was a pair of pants, which have been identified as the property of John Hays. A detached letter hunting case watch, valued at twenty-five dollars, was also found in Tidman's possession, and identified by Mr. Hays. These, together with numerous other articles, were stolen from Mr. Hays, on the 29th of July, at Ward's Hotel, corner of Grant and Seventh streets. Tidman was committ
