FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR; B. L. McOULLEY, of Birmingham. MOSES CHESS of Chartiers Township ABBIERG THE SOUTHERN MILITIA

We do not like the policy, which the President has adopted in Mississippi o arming the Militia of that state to preserve order locally, with a view to the total withdraws) of the National forces therefrom. Mov. Smarker originally urged the "young men of the State of Mississippi, who have guished themselves for gallantry under the rebel banner, and who have recently laid down their arms, to form military panies, one of cavalry and one of infantry in each county, to maintain order in the state, the chief object being to get rid of the colored troops by substituting these recent ly disarmed rebels in their place.

Gen. SLOOUM resisted and prohibited the enforcement of this scheme of Gov. SHAR-MEY, stating clearly and doubtless truly, that the only class in this State needing a military force to keep it in order, consisted of these young men who had so distinguished themselves" in the rebol service. The breaches of order, says Gen SLOCUM, consists mainly in the 'murdering of freedmen. and in outrages upon Northern men and Government couriers," at the hands of these late rebels just surrendered by Foundar and DICK TAYLOR To suppress these disorders. Gov. Shanker selects the class who commit

In the face of the facts presented by Gen. SLOCUM, the President has set aside his order annulling that of Gov. SHARKEY, thus permitting the Governor's plan to be put Mississippi, this is conivalent to raising and equipping an army of 15,000 men, every man of which is hostile to the Union and the governmen. It is in effect re-arming. that portion of the rebel army which was raised in Mississippi.

The pursuance of a similar policy throughout the South would end in raising a standing army of from 150,000 to 200,000 secessionists, under whose sway the negro race would soon be exterminated or re-en

We cannot think it possible that the President took into consideration the results that must inevitably flow from following out this policy The idea of the President, that "the people must be trusted with their government," is correct, if properly carried out; but he seems to foran integral part of "the people," and that Gov. Snamer's scheme not only excludes them from all share in "their government," but puts into the hands of a minority of the people the right and the power to op

If the white people of the South are to be considered as exclusively "the people" then medissent in toto from the President's idea that the [white] people must be trusted with their "government." They are not fit to enjoy any such trust. Every day demonstrates this to be true. They need years upon years of tutelage and submission to fit them for that trust. Men taken red handed with treason and rebellion ith their hearts embittered against the freedmen, by four years of strife, are in no way qualified for a trust that requires qualities not one of which they possess. As well might a city, after quelling a formidable rior, put into the hands of the rioters the preservation of its future peace.

Condemniag their own Candidate. The New York Demogratic Convention passed the following, among its other reso-"That as the first fruits of this triumph th people demand the subordination of the military to civil rule, the restitution of the military to civil rule, the restitution of the authority of the courts, and the recognition of the equality of the States; that we regard all efforts, either by prolonging the military, rule, or, by denying the right, of representation to the States, fin corder to compall them to adopt near o equality or compel them to adopt negro equality or negro fuffrage as an element of their Constitutions, as tending to delay and prevent the principles of the Courtry, and to subsent the principles of the Government, and endanger the libertles of the people."

The compensation almost district. The same convention, almost simuitancously with the passage of this resolution, nominated Maj. Gen. Slocum for Becretary of State; and Maj. Gen. Slocum was at that moment franciscom an earnest and determined effort to subordinate the civil to mill tary rule in Mississippi. He believes and he says that in such a state as Mississippi, the military power is supreme and the civil power subordinate to it; he rovokes the order of Gov. Sharkey, forbids their enforce ment, and substitutes his own in their stead he is, in fact, what the Democracy call a "military tyrant" and one who sincerely believes in that iron handed rule which, this democratic convention asserts, danbyerts the principles of the government and en-

NEGRO INSURRECTIONS. We have looked in vain for any item of wa, even the slightest, to give confirmsion to the report sent to Washington from Virginia that there was danger of a negro surrection in that State. Not a single fact has transpired to justify such a report, r to warrant a belief in any quarter that the negroes entertained any such purpose. The report probably originated among the ex-slaveholders, who construe the existence of a determined spirit among the negroes not to be imposed u; on, to be incipient insurrection. With them, any assertion of manhood on the part of the negro, is equivalent to open revolt; and if, as we trust they have, the freedmen of Virginia have shown the proper pluck in resisting he efforts of their late_masters to practically re-enslave them, it is not to be wondered at that some half crazy loons should stand aghast and cry out "Insurrection" Under slave rule, if a slave resisted so slight a thing as a slap on the cheek, it was thought prima facie evidence of the existnce of a conspiracy to rebel; and now when not one of them will allow themselves o be chastised or defrauded, the evidence

He has, it seems, authorized the revival of that infamous slave ins itution, the Patrol—the very thing the ex-slave masters wanted. The Patrol was, with them, one of the most powerful isstruments of oppression. As long as it was in force, no negro was safe out of his lishment it will be made the means of in flicting every possible cruelty upon the freedmen. The laborer on his way from one plantation to another, after his day's vork, to see wife or children, will be arrested, imprisoned, and punished as only slave drivers know how to punish, and oxious to the late ruling class. We object to this whole system of treat ng the negro as a speciality, and dealing with him as a dangerous element in society. All he wants is to be let alone. Give him a fair chance and he will take care of himelf. All he wants is protection against those who have been his oppressors, and security in the enjoyment of his freedom. He is not to be treated as a babe, or a child, but as a man, with all the rights and privileges of a man, and with all the duties of a man upon him. The whites of the South have got to learn this lesson, sooner or later, and the sooner the better. The Freedmen's Bureau can very properly give its attention to imparting this lesson to them, and it will then secure itself from the disgrace of establishing patrols and relapsing into the other barbarities of slavery.

THE LEADERS LED. In their unanimous appeal for the pardo EFF. Davis, the members of the Mississippl Constitutional Convention coolly assume, in be half of their constituents, the guilt of inaugura

SOCIAL LIPE AT THE SOUTH. -A North

Carolina correspondent of the New York Times says that throughout the South social privileges are not very generously extended toward a "'Yankee," no matter what his principles may be. -The women of the South, as in every other section, control social matters, and fix the status of all applicants for admission into their circles; and they incline to exclude Northerners. The other day I overheard one say to another; "Julia, do you know what FANKIE has done? She has married a Yankee." "Well," said Julia, "T always thought she was to frail creature." And so it goes, the leaders denounce those who countenance the Yankees, and therefore a Northerner meets with but little success in his advances to-

And yet they nominated him? With the newspapers full of the record of his military "tyranny," they denounce him in the resolution we have quoted, as an enemy to the government, and then place him at the head of the Democratic ticket. To denounce a man and nominate him for a high office in the same breath, is one of the strangers shings break nown in the distory of politics. None but a Democratic Convention could have been guilty of thus instantaneously giving the lie to its own professions.
