We trust therefore, that in every election district our party friends will immedi ately take measures to effect a working active organization. They know wel enough how to do it, for they have done it often enough in days gone by. RECONSTBUCTION AND RESTORA-.. With the exception of a few timid paper and speakers, the great bulk of the Repub lican party has endorsed the views laid down by Mr. STEVENS, in his speech, as beween "reconstruction" and "restoration." All the leading Republican papers agree with us in condemning his confiscation scheme as too sweeping and harsh, but agree with him as we do, in the general tenor of his speech. Waknow of no one of them that coes not, with us, believe fully in the power to confiscate, and the duty of confiscation, under certain cirit expedient to press the extreme point indicated by Mr. STEVENS. To show the temper of the party generally, we sub. mit a few extracts. For instance, the late

State Convention in Massachusetts spoke as state Convention in Massachusetts spore as follows:

there is or can be any doubt about our county's ticket. The election of that is certrin, beyond persadventure. In fact, there would have been no opposition to it, if there had been no other interest at stake. But we have a State ticket, and it is of the utmost importance that we should poil a full vote for it. Wo want to see that ticket triumphantly elected, and the way to do that is to rally every Republican and Union voter to the polls. Allegheny is looked to for a rousing majority for it, and our iriends throughout the State must not be disappointed.

We have not room for any more extracts to day; but we may add that the speech of Mr. Stevens has been published approving by by all the prominent Republican journals in the West, and that as between "reconstruction" and "restoration," the Republican press of the country, with rare exceptions, occupies precisely the ground that we do.

The Detroit Tribune says:

It is very fashionable now a-days to overlook the fact, but the fat h of the American people is pledged to the negro of the South for his freedem and protection. The slave helped to firmly seat Andrew Johnson in the chair where he sits to-day; and he now calls upon him for justice. We have as a nation promised him justice in the face of the world. And yet in the restoration of the S-uth we are deliberately delivering the freedmen into the hands of the tornm-nors—with his liberty unassured, surrounded by men who hate him with a dreadful intensity, who are perpetitating unknows horrors upon him, and who have worse in store—surrendering him without any means of self protection. Is this a fit reward for particulo, services?
