HORES CHESS of Charliers Township. BEPRESHINGLY COOL The Commercial is full of gems, which

We are constrained to set. We take an other from its tiars in the following precion

Allasiachtaseits sees no occasion for dis-Masiachtaseits sees no occasion for dis-grieting with the President, but sustains him genemialy. The humi unreasonable, destructive conquered province and confis-cation doctrine finds no favor in her eyes,— in fact, is indored nowhere, by anybody, but the Pittsburgh Gazetts. Massachusetts is quite another policy, as the following res-olution, adopted by the late convention at Worcester, plsinly shows:

Worcester. plainly shows: ""We agree with our Chief. Magiatrate, that preason is the gratest of crimes, and those who are expecially guilty of this great crime ought to samic rendim punchment. Upon the mass of the rebels we would inflict no panishment, almply requiring this reformation of their laws and customs which is indispensible, that the grounstry may be greefly pacified and made uplied for all future time."

Perhaps the Gazette will undertake to read Massachusetts out of the party! We have no objections whatever to the dochines of the Massachusetts Convention. There is nothing in them which is not in precise conformity with our own. If the Commercial will endorse them we shall be satisfied," will it do so? We put the question, and we want an answer, a It asserts again without even the alightest regard for the truth, and in the face of the record, that the harab, unreasonable, destructive, conquered province and confiscation doctrine, finds no favor in her eyesin fact is encoured nowhere, by any body but the Pittsburgh Gazette." We ask it now to say, yes or nay, as it regards the truth, whether our citations from the Penn-Whather there is any thing in our doctrines which is not supported by our quotations from that platform, and if there be, to point ont where and what it is

Nor is it any more true that Massachus is for "quite another pol'cy." It endorses spicifically that one of the Pennsylvanis resolutions which declares the experimen a failuer, and enunciates the necessity b making all men equal. The resolution c not be so fast. They must play the hypo-crite until they get back with power, and ted from its own proceedings is entirely in accordance with our views. It condemns treason as a crime that deserves condign punlehment. So do we, and so did the President, but he pardons it. It would exempt the masses of the rebels, and so would Mr. STEVENS, so would we. All he propo see to punish, are those who are worth over $10,000. We des re nothing more, and shall be perfectly well content to compro-mise the whole question by giving political power to the loyal, without regard to case or color, and depriving those who have shown themselves unworthy of confidence of all future lot or portion in the direction of this Government. Is this merciful enough ?

ists, we shall be well satisfied to forgive any differences which it may be sble to find between them and the Platform of the Union party of this State.

"ALONE." We quote the following morceau from the Commercial of Monday: "TRADDEUS STEVENS, with the Pitts ingh Gazette, his solitary backer, stands burgh Gas alone in urging the policy of confiscation. We have already quoted a resolution of the Union Republican Convention which shows that the doctrines of Hr STEVENS are precisely the same as those promitiga ted by the convention itself. The Commercial with brazen effrontery, ig-nores the record, and reiterates the lie. It seems to think that its renders are fools. It shall not, however, escape in this way. We publish the resolution again, and we shall keep the whole of them standing in capital type at the head of our columns, if that paper shall persist in houdwinking its readers by ignoring them.

winking its readers by ignoring them. Tith. That as the late Rebellion was wantonly precipitated by the property holders of the South, it is but just that they ahould pay the expenses of the war, and Congress ahould acclare as forticited and vested in the Government the property of all Rebels whose catates arcced the sum of the property so confiscated ahould be ap-piled to increase the pensions of these an-titied thereto by the casualties of the war, to pay the damages done by the energy to loyal citizens, and to reduce the burden of the national debt. The same articles concludes with the folpaign.

The same articles concludes with the folfowing paragraph :

Towing paragraps: "The attempt to distract the party and defeat the Republican ticket in this State will fail. The conquered and universal conflection doctime meets with no appro-val from the people. But it will be well for the friends of the cause everywhere to . Do on the aler."

Here is the assertion again that the Union Republican platform meets with no approval from the people. We agree, however, that "the attempt to distract the party and defeat the ticket," which is the whole drift of the Commercial's policyimpudence of the thing was not intolerable -to read in a newspaper that condemns the whole platform of the party, the grave remark that "it will-be well for the friends of the cause everywhere to be on the slert." Yes | friends of the cause | it is indeed time

 Yesi Triends of the cause 1 it is indeed time that you should be up and doing, when your very fig is insuled down and trampled ipoint by those who claim to be interested in your streess. You can afford to enter-tain in your camp, neither the traitor nor the spy.
 BOUTH CABOLINA.—The Constitutional Convention in South Carolina has, is seems, passed a resolution simply repealing the exclusion fill State do not declare that or difficance null and vold, as was done in Mis-aissippi ; they simply repeal it, and so put or record their conviction that it was a legitimate and legal sct, and not void for want of power to pass it. Of course, all acts done under it are legal. Its repeal is simply an acquivescense in an accomplished fact, and not sh acknowledgment of the wrongfulness of Becession itself. wrongfulness of Secession Itself. of Saturday.
