SPECIAL NOTICES.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA IS A concentrated extract of the choicest roots of vegetables combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for disease. Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such certainly it does at times, and in many cases. But the world will accept its cures when they are proven sufficient, and the sick will not be persuaded to suffer from the use of inferior compounds, because they are said to be "just as good." Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best blood purifier that can be had. Its reputation is not factitious, but has been fairly won by its intrinsic merits, and by the cures it has effected. These are so numerous, and of such importance to the afflicted, that we do not hesitate to assert that this medicine is more than a match for the most malignant disease that has its origin in the blood, and that it is the only reliable remedy which can be obtained for that class of complaints. Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, &c.
Syphilis or Venereal Disease, is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this Sarsaparilla, and the patient is left in comparative health.
Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood, and are often soon cured by this extract of Sarsaparilla.
Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used Ayer's—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agent below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.
AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Heartburn arising from disordered stomach, Pain, or Morbid inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, and for a thinner Diet, the Sugar Coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.
Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by S. A. FAHNESTOCK, SON & CO., and by all Druggists. au24:wsu1ydecw

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The death of Governor Brough of Ohio, has called forth high eulogies from the press upon his character, in which especial references are made to his religious life. These commendations appear to be just, both as to the exalted character of his morality and the simple sincerity of his Christian faith. The fact is set forth in statements published that the Governor was not a member of the Church, nor had been an active attendant at any place of public worship for many years, yet, he was, nevertheless, a Christian. It is further stated he had espoused no particular sect, but believed in the fundamental principles of Christianity. While there is much that is consolatory to the good in these expressions, there is quite as much that is saddening. We are compelled to call attention to a lamentable defect in the case of the deceased Governor of Ohio,—agreeing as it does in its chief features with the case of our honored and martyred President Lincoln, that of neglecting to assume the Christian name, and conform himself to the requirements of Christ, and to confess him before men. He who fails to do this not only neglects a high duty for himself, but he most effectively teaches others to do so. This evil is seen in all classes of society; a readiness to assume the morals of a Christian, and failing to fulfil the express injunction of Christ "to come out from the world," by connecting themselves with the people of God. A distinguished writer commenting upon the death of Governor Brough, says it is sometimes strangely assumed to be a kind of Christian to make no special profession of religion, whereas that is a sad neglect of a most sacred obligation. This is most clearly to be "ashamed of Christ before men," the assurance of which is, that of such Christ will be ashamed before the Father and the Holy Angels. The profession of religion is a sacred obligation incumbent upon every one, and its neglect for any reason, is a wrong due to Christ and His cause—a sin to be repented of before God. Our great men generally, if not all religious, make no profession of it, and as all these outward acts of christian recognition which Christ has ordained and which are to be observed by all christians are marks of distinction between themselves and other men, by which they are to be known as disciples of Christ. Much as we revere the childlike professions of faith and hope in Christ of the dying statesman, at the same time we cannot but feel that such a death does not in harmony with an avowed earnest life, in which these were given as demonstrative proof of inward reality in the change. It would seem that among the chief utterances of such an hour there should be such an unmistakable and sincere confession for neglecting to glorify Christ before men, and to serve him so that which is above all else dear to him on earth—his Church—his kingdom among men. This strange phenomena and sense of neglect to serve God, is a very common and grievous error by our public men and others, and should be rebuked, both in life and by deeds.

—At the late meeting of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association, quite an animated discussion took place between the Radicals and the Conservatives. The latter with the denomination to be bound to a distinct profession of the divinity of Christ, while the former claim unrestricted freedom of religious opinion. A motion introduced by the Conservative party to reassert the belief of the Church in the divinity of Christ, was rejected.

—Congregationalism has grown in Missouri within a few years, when the first church was organized to fifteen congregations.

—The editor of the Advocate and Journal commenting on the letter of Dr. Muttison, who had left the M. E. Church mainly on account of its alleged course on the slavery question in 1861, and who has just returned to the M. E. Church again on account of her high anti slavery position, says the Church is at length free from all sinful complicity with slavery, not by the events of the war, nor by virtue of a Presidential proclamation, but by its own action as taken in the General Conference of 1860, before the war began, and finally registered in 1864.

—During the session of the German Methodist Conference at Delaware, Ohio, one of the German ministers preached at the African M. E. Church, Bishop Baker and a number of the ministers attending. At the close of the session, Bishop Quinn of the African Church invited them to take part in the sacrament. A correspondent writes, the scene which followed, was one not often seen. About thirty German missionaries kneeled around the altar to receive the signs of salvation from the gigantic African Bishop, assisted by Bishop Baker. The colored congregation was astonished and pleased at once, and if a man from the newly established family of the copperheads had been present, his long standing connection that the northern Methodists were the cause of the war would certainly have been strengthened.

—The new session of the Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny city, opened on Monday of last week. The Banner says an unusually large number of students was present on the first day. The introductory lecture was delivered by the Rev. A. A. Hodge, D. D., on the "Preparation for the Ministry."

—A German Presbyterian Church has been organized at Bridgeport, Conn. Upwards of sixty members were received, who signified their acceptance of the fundamental articles of Christian faith as set forth in the Westminister Conference, and entered into solemn covenant with the Lord Jesus Christ and with each other.

—The Biddle street Mission Sunday School at St. Louis, under the direction of the Presbyterians, is an immense affair. It now numbers 1200 scholars and 60 teachers, with an average attendance of be between 700 and 800.

—Rev. D. Blair, father and pioneer of the United Presbyterian Church in the region of country embraced in the Presbytery of Conemaugh, and who has labored in the ministry for forty nine years, will before the Presbytery, charged with the serious offence of sinking down at the Lordstable, in the Presbyterian Church of Indiana. The Presbytery says the Banner, entertained and discussed for nearly a whole day, a resolution to suspend Mr. Blair from the ministry and communion of the Church! Finally the resolution was amended and substituted that Mr. Blair deserved an admonition. It was suggested to postpone the admonition that Mr. Blair deserved, saying: "If you have any good advice to give me, give it now; if it is good, I will take it; if it isn't, I won't!" So much for close communion.

—The Second Adventists had a grand gathering at the pleasant village of Alton Bay, N. H., some time since, from Eastern New England, Northern New England and a part of the Canadas. It is supposed 15,000 were present. The Adventists fix the time of Christ's second coming between the year 1865 and 1870; the time generally agreed upon being 1868. Mr. Cumming, D. D. (Scottish church), Rev. S. H. Tyng, D. D. (St. George's Episcopal church), New York, and others are named as agreeing upon 1868. It is said large numbers of Christians of the Congregational, Methodist, Free Will, and Calvin Baptists, and others believe in the second coming of Christ; but all except the Adventists do not subscribe to the doctrine of annihilation.

—The United Presbyterians in Wheeling are making arrangements to erect a handsome new church edifice on the ground recently purchased on Fourth street, above Monroe, for $12,000.

Platform Adopted by the Republican Convention.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The following are the resolutions of the New York Republican Convention:

The Hon. HENRY J. RAYMOND on behalf of the Committee of resolutions, read the following resolutions:

Resolved, That while we deplore the death by assassination of Abraham Lincoln, as closing a career of transcendent usefulness and honor, and as a great National calamity, we recognize in Andrew Johnson, his successor, a statesman of ability, experience, and high-toned patriotism, and the most unsullied integrity, and one who has rendered invaluable services to the Union cause during the rebellion, and whose single-hearted devotion to the permanent prosperity and glory of our common country, commands the respect and confidence of the American people; and that we tender to him in his administration those assurances of cordial and effective support which were tendered by us in his nomination and election.

Resolved, That we approve, as eminently wise and just, the sentiments of kindness and confidence which President Johnson has evinced toward those of the communities and individuals lately in rebellion, who accept the legal termination of the Union and the perpetual prohibition of Slavery as the legitimate and irrepealable results of the war; that we approve the initial steps he has taken toward relaying the bonds of military authority in the Southern States, and in restoring to their people full and complete control over their local affairs just as soon as may be found compatible with the preservation of order and the maintenance of peace, the exclusion of Slavery, and the fulfillment of the constitutional obligations of the national authority to guarantee to every State a republican form of government; and that we confidently look forward, under his wise and patriotic administration, to the establishment of more cordial relations, of greater mutual respect, and of a stronger interest in each others welfare, between the Northern and Southern sections of the Union than have hitherto prevailed, and that in all measures he may adopt, tending to the attainment of these just and beneficient ends, we pledge him our cordial and hearty support.

Resolved, That while we regard the national sovereignty over all the subjects committed to it by the Constitution of the United States, as having been confirmed and established by the recent war, we regard the several States in the Union as having jurisdiction over all local and domestic affairs, expressly reserved to them by the same Constitutional authority; and therefore it shall be deemed compatible with the public safety to restore to the States lately in rebellion the reserved exercise of these rights, we trust it will be done in the faith and on the basis that they will be exercised in a spirit of equal and impartial justice, and with a view to the elevation and perpetuation of the full rights of citizenship of all their people, inasmuch as these are principles which constitute the basis of our republican institutions.

Resolved, That the restoration of peace will enable the Government to restore the civil tribunals of the country to their just and national supremacy, and that we have full and ent
