Captain A. D. Cunning, over whose head an indictment for murder has been hanging for lighteen months, for the marder of Louis Prosect, in Brown County, has just been truel and acquitted, in the Jennings Circuit Court. Prosect came to a Union meeting, in Jackson Township, where Canning was speaking, and attempted to break it up, killing, in the attempt, a Union soldier named Danlels. Prosser was then shot, and wounded, by Cunning. The wound was not considered dangerous, at the time, and the corporateds of Brown County, in recognition of his services to the party, in the killing of a Union roldier, gave him the nomination and the wound, in combination with heavy potations of whisky, killed him before the election.

"The acene that ensued was one to which no description can do justice. Felker seemed as if he intended to pay no attention to the arrest, but recovering himself, handed over his pocket-book with some papers to his brother. The movement was witnessed by Alian Pinkerton, chief of the Pinkerton Detective Agency, and he regarding the attempt as an unwarranted one, struck the writs of the receiver and the property fell on the floor. Then ensued a fight, but the reporters, being behind the table, while the afray took place near the door, could not tell what blows were struck. Ho wever, in the meles, the pockets of Mr. Pinkerton were also empited of five United States bonds, two of which were for $1,000 each, two for $100 es, h, and one for $50. They were picked up from the floor subsequently, and handed to the owner at the end of the fraces. Kenny had hold of Felker, but the latter demurred to accompanying his captor. The Justice being appealed to, decided that Felker could not be taken from the come so long as there was a probability of his being wanted as a witness. With this Kenny was satisfied, and the trial was ordered to proceed.
