UNION MEN, AROUSE We have faithfully and urgently warned the Union Repullment, that they cannot aope to carry the Cection in Pennsylvania without an effort We tell our friends that our old enemy is vigitant and unscrupulous The cause of freedom is not yet secure. The great effort of the Democratic press through at this State, for weeks past, has then to establish the right of deserters and hallkers to vote, and to make it clear that the only way to prevent negroot from voting, is to vote the Di mogratic ticket.
Thus the colored man, who helped to fill the quotas of the State, and so permitted ip the quotas of the State, and so permitted e Democratic opponents of the war to the Democratic opposeents of the war to any at home, is to be proscribed. He may have lost an eye, or an arm, or both legs, in defence of his country; no mattern he is affectively and interpretable of the country; no mattern he is stay at home, is to be pro-cribed. He may black and must not be permitted to vote. the deserter-th; man wao sneiked way from the bittle-fi ld, who turned his back upon the starty flag, who perjured himself by running away, and disgraced ilmself and country by his cowardice and bolironery, he must be permitted to vote Buch is the Demogratic idea of justice an ! fair dealing.

The same party, however, was just as argent last year, to keep the white soldier from voting. In a Democrat's eyes, no foldier who fought unainst the revels, as fit to vote. It is only because they cannot help it that the party submits to the exerrise of this right on the part of the white soldiers n.w. Both black and white coldier, would be proscribed by them, If they cared; but as only the black soldier Is within their power, they pour out on him the vengeance they would fain wreak n both. That such a party should take kindly to sneaks, skulkers, cowards, skeddaddlers and deserters, is but natural. These fellows, gress, were all Democrats, and the party naturally hankers after its persecuted brethgen. The dirty poltroon who described his ntry's flag, discries his political home with an instinct as uncerring as that which guides the ass to his master's crib.

BUR FUTURE FINANCIAL POLICY. What policy does the democratic party present, in stepping forward to demand the restoration of the government to their nds? This is a question which every man of business and of means is bound to party has propozed is, that the bonds of the ernment are rightfully subject to local taxation. No system could be devised, short of actual repudiation, ti at would so thoroughly ter and destroy the national credit as this. If the National Government has not the power to protect its bonds from outside faxation, it has no power at all, and as a consequence would have no credit at all. practical application of this idea would drive all United States securities out of market by rendering them valueless. And yet this is the one, sole financial project of the Democracy. They present nothing else and advocate nothing else. What my you, men of means? Shall this destructive policy be inaugurated? Of course you will each say, "No!" But that "No" to be offective, must be uttered at the polls. The only way to prevent its inauguration is to vote the Republican ticket.

THE DAY AT HOME. We trust every man who has the cause of reedom at heart will arrange, to-day, to ow to his country, or to devote the time he can possibly spare to help in at has to be done. Merchants and man-turers should see to it that all their emrees have the opportunities of voting, endevery man can profitably bestow as houser two in passing around among his friends and urging a general turn-out.

OUR WORK OVER. We have done our duty faithfully in imssing upon the minds of all our readers the importance of work in this election. If they have not done their share of duty, the fault is not ours. The result is now in their hands, and we have faith that the result will be right.

THE DEMOCRACY PROPOSES. The democratic creed, scripped or andinises, may be stated in very few worl. It has but two points-

First-That the war has settled nothing Second-That therefore the Southern States possess, unimpaired, all the rights they had before the rebellion, and should be readmitted to the Union on that basis.
The other issues presented by the party, such as that this is a white man's governsuch as that this is a white man's government, and that the government indebtedness is taxed le ad libitum by States and municipalities, are mere side issues, that spring incidentally from the two points we have encimerated The party hat thinks the war has settled nothing, with logical propriety advocates a practical repudiation of the debt incurred in its prosecution. Do the loyal men of this country think that the war has settled nothing-that we of money for nothing? If they do, the men, and is making provision to educate tablashave poured out rivers of blood and billions way to show their faith by their works is to vote the democratic ticket; it not, to vote against it. It the Southern States still pressess all then is over rights unimpeired, and are to Light as they were, then, indeed, will it was have been in vain. The on v a norta ic party. approaching election in October, 1865, growing out of the several conscription laws passed by Congress, and the Act of 3d March, 1865, (Sec. 21,) taking from desert-
