. THE DAY OF ACTION. This is the day for verliying a man's words by his deeds. If a man says he is a can, and does not yote, we know precisely how much his profession of Re mism is worth. The test of a man's political faith is his readiness to give it a practical expression at the ballot-box.

The Republican who can vote, to-day, and does not, is guilty of a gross derelic-tion of duly. A man's rights are given to him to be exercised, at the proper time and to-day is the proper time to exercise and to-day is the proper time to exercise the right of voting.

After many annual contests, heretofore, we have heard men bewaiting their neglect of this duty. Seediese through their neglect of this duty. Seediese through their neglect of the Democratic ticket for many pears, simply because there were thousands of voters, opposed to that par y, who could of voters, opposed to that par y, who could

All that two out of the way, at the furthest. Five or ten minutes will cover the expenditur of time. Is that too much to expect of a man who really loves his country?

The rebel sympathizers in Pennsylva. nis, in a fit of desperation; have renewed the fight of last year, but under a different guise. Last year they fought as in rebel grey; th's year they sport the army blue. But it is the same enemy. The clothes they have stolen are too short for their limbs, and one can easily see the rebel grey protruding beneath them. EVERY soldier in blue found on the Dem ocratic ticket to-day, is but the advance guard of the guerrillas behind, and are put orward to deceive and throw us off ou shows what school the Democrats have been learning in for four years.

THE only hope of the Democrats in this election is that the Republicans, seeking relief from the prolonged mental strain of the war, may neglect the election, and let it go by default. That sole hope of theirs must be disappointed.

STAND BY THE RIGHT.-A Democratic success, to-day, will be claimed as evidence of a great reaction, and will gladden every rebel heart in Ditte. To prevent such a result, every Republican must stand by the right, to-day.

THE Greene county Republican says: The wheat crop of this county, if we credit the reports generally, will be a light one—averaging a little more than half a crop. The corn crop is unusually good, and will turn out a great yield, Berley (but little sown) and outs, a groot crop. Buckwheat somewhat biasted by the sun. Hay and making abundant.

and pasture abundant.

The Washington Examiner and the Washington Benies, Democratic organs of Washington county, have been consolidated and are now published under the head of "Beview and Examiner." The former editors of the two papers co-operate in the consolidated one, which we think is an improvement on its predecessors. FORBIDDING THE BANNS,—This somewhat un-FOREIDDING THE BANNS.—This somewhat unusual proceeding took place in Sidmouth Church, England, on the morning of the 17th ultimo. A fatherman named George Cordey made known his intention in the parish church, in accordance with the usual custom, of being united in marringe to the lady of his choice. But not as usual idid the announcement pass unchallenged, for at the conclusion a young lady stood up pronounding the ominous but seldom cyaken words, "I forbid the banns." The girl, whose name is Criarall, spipers to copular that ahe has a prior claim to the faithiess swain, and therefore took this opportunity of endesyoring to enforce her rights. The affair caused considerable astonishment amongst the congregation.
