was effected by the election of Dr. Brick, as Moderator. The question was then called up and discussed. Dr. BRECKENBIDGE charged that the declaration of the disloyalists is heretical, schismatical, contemptions, defiant and in open ebellion to the Presbyterian Church, and that either he (Dr. B.) or the authors of that doeunent must go out of this Synod. Among the leaders on the rebel side are S. R. Wilson, for nerly of Cincinnatia Mr. Davins, who figured in the 5th Church off, incinati, as a pious rebel sympa thizer of the STUART ROBINSON school, and Dr McPherrens who was expelled from St. Louis y the military authorities. The contest will be the Louistille Prestytery. This would arry the matter up to the General Assembly which meets in St. Louis next May.
