During the present stre, although any resistance to the Imperial troeps on the part of the Juarists is out of the question. The latter have succeeded in organizweek numerous meetings have been held, which were attended not only by men of the lower ing guerrillos, who are exceedingly troublesome, not only on the line bordering the Rio Grande, renks, but by some persons of considerable rease. At one meeting resolutions were adopted to support Fenian objects and organizations, both by money and also by physical aid, if necessary. The question was also discussed of the purchase of vessels, and the formation of an armament for privateering purposes, and the idea of prey-ing upon Bitlsk commerce at sen, appeared to be keenly relihed. A resolution to carry out some object of this kind, was put and carried with enthasiastic demonstrations, and much violence and wild-ness of of largingage. As a proof, however, that the resolution was not mere froth, a call was made for subscriptions, and in a very few min-ules nearly £200 were laid down. With the ex-ception of the vapouring style of talk which might be expected on such occasions, the pro-ceedings were orderly. It is foured, with regard to the Royal Naval Reserve, that the Fenian disaffiction has spread conviderably. A strong fielding is entertained in town in favor of the vigorous and prompt canvass of bith the volunteer and naval reserve forces, in order to discover the recreants.
