A QUERY FOR "A CHURCHMAN." neutralize the effect of what he considered a damaginz protest, by Dr. Nancon, against the action of the Convention upon theresolutions of Mr. Binney. In the debate on that subject, the Rev. Dr. Clements, of Chio, remarked in substance, "that he was far frem assured that the rebellion was at an end or would not be renewed, when he found that body refusing to thank God for its suppression." This was received with loud cries of "order, order," on the part of the majority. We refer to it now particularly because it conveys the same idea that we have been endeavoring to inculcate.

In fact, he was more popular with the ultra men of the South, on account of his connivance at the Kansas outrage, his dogma about having no power to coerce a State, &c., than he was with the Union men. A remonstrance from him, a warning, a declaration that he wast maintain the authority of the Government and see that the laws were executed—this, coming from a friend, would have induced the secessionists to passe and consider, at least, it would have aroused and given confidence to the Union element of the South. It would in my opinion, have averted the conflict. in my opinion, have averted the conflict But he stood still and did nothing."

I have ever aimed to be so in all I say, and in offering the LAUCHING GAS FOR EXTRAOTING TESTH WITHOUT PAIN, it is, in my most humble conviction, the best agent for safety and efficiency ever introduced. Having given the Chiloroform and Ether for ten years previous to my use of the Laughing Gas, and this agent for mere than ten years, in the meantime administering it to many patrens who took Ether and Chioroform of me, I claim to be skilled in the use of all these agents, and will assure every person desiring to undergo the torture of tooth extracting, that their. Ille and health is perfectly safe in giving it a trial We have no sickness or days of stupidity from its use. I also offer to those wishing them, a BEAU-TIFUL SET OF TEETH FOR TEN DULLARS, and all higher priced work if desired. ZEPHYR KNIT GOODS;
