langhed defiance at wind and weather. One wold about the continuance of the Fair for three days faxt week. On account of the mis-erable stage of the weather, and the poor chance afforded 'eribhicar, as well as the fact that itousands are kept from visiting the grounds who would otherwise be there every day, the idea anglested itself to our mind to canvas the ground abd secretain the feeling in regard to an extension. We did so, and in every instance nave one—there was a desire expressed to con-tine able Fair. The one exception did not actu-ally dissent, but was rather inkerwarm in regard to the mixter. In view of this feeling, would it not be well for the managers to announce that the Fair will be continued on Monday, Tnesday and Wednesday of the coming week?
