SENTENCE OF ASSISTANT QUARTERMASTER THOMAS Hon. Caleb Cushing's Mission to England

THE CASE OF CAPTAIN WIRZ.

Defaulting Southern Postmasters' Debts NEW YORK, Oct. 26,-The Herald's Washington special says : The delegates to the late State Convention of Alabama united in memtrial of Clement C. Clay, and in the meantime to release him on parole from the rigorous con-finement to which he has been subjected since his arrested. The memorialists state that they have not made this application from any motive of sympathy with the past political course of Mr. Clay, or for the part he took in the late rebellion; but that, on the contrary, many of them have uniformly condemned his efforts to incite rebellion and se-

An examination of the officers of the Veteran Reserves discloses the fact that two per cent. of them are disabled from wounds. Botton per cent. from disease, and four per cent-from accidental fractures, &c.

The board for exam ning officers for colored trobes, recently sitting in Washington, has been dissolved by order of the War Department, and a new board organized, which will mast in Baltimorr, for the examination of candidates for appointment as officers of the United Estates Veteran Volunteers, First Army Corp., and United States colored troops.

The soutence of the Court Martial in the case of Assistant Quintermaster A. L. Thômas, is to-day promulgated. He was sentenced to be cashlered, but the Sucretary of War, in consideration of his previous good character, allowed him to resign. An examination of the officers of the Veteran of his previous good character, allowed him to tresign.

A special to the World, dated Washington, 25, says: Hon. Caleb Cushing leaves for England in next Wednesday's steamer on a special legal mission connected with the State Department. Thus far his business is kept confidential, but it is very clearly surmised that it has reference to an adjudication of the chaims for damages made by this Government on Great Britain for the depredations of the Alabama on American commerce, it is believed that the Government has accepted the proposition of Earl Russell to appoint a Commission to settle such claims. Earl Russel to appoint a Commission to settle such claims.

The rumor that Wirz is to be hanged on Fri-day, is false. It is believed that the charge of compiracy has been abandoned in the finding-and it is the impression generally, that the pis-oner has been convicted on the other charges and sentenced to be hing ou such day at the President shall designate.

A special to the Tribinae, dated Washlaton the 35th, says: Three hindred and siry-one thousand four hundred and three dollars, and ninety cents its due to the government from defaulting postmasters of the Scattern States, which they retained when the rebellion broke out. They are now being called on for this amount.

The Virginia Postmasters are most in arroars, owing $65,504.47. As all their securities were required to have real estate, it is believed that the larger portion of this sum can be recovered. In 1861 their refusals to pay the sums were often abusive and arrogant; now their tone is apologetic and poverty pleading.

Provisional Georgia Dolmson called the meeting to order in a brief speech. Over two hundred and seventy deicagates were present. The amnesty oath was administered by Judges Averon and Harris. The Governor called for a vote by ballot, for a permanent president, and it was expected that Mr. Charles J. Jenkins, of Richmond county, would be unanimously nominated, but he declined peremptorily, and Herschel V. Johnson, of Jefferson county, was nominated. After discussion it was decided to vote vice roce. Mr. Johnson reselved all the vote cast with the exception of a few complimentary ones for Mr. Jinkins. On taking the chair, Mr. Johnson made a On taking the chair, Mr. Johnson made a On taking the cuair, Mr. Johnson made a speech in which he suggested the duty of the Convention, and clearly indicated what, in consideration of the surrounding circumstances, must be done. A measage was received from Governor Johnson on important matters. He announced that all the cotton purchased by the State had been entitured or burned; that all assets of the State abroad had been drawn to the full; that all second processes are prescribed, and that captured of our citat an assets of the State abroad had been drawn to the full; that all sources of income are unavailable, and that, therefore, it had become necessary for him to previde for the immediate/emergencies. He invited attention to the proposals for borrowing such money to the amount of $50,000, and to the redistricting of the State for members of Congress under the new apportionment. He aim recommends a change in the mode of representation in the General Assembly.

After some local suggestions he stated that the debt of the State is $20,813,255, all of which only $2,067,750 was contracted before the war. The debt contracted before the war, he said, was an honorable one, but the other is on a very different besis, having an moral or legal obligation. The Confederate currency and cause fourished toge-her in life, and must be buried in the state. The prospects are that its action will be barmonious, conservative and in all respects gratifying.
