GEN. SLOCUM. We learn from the Tribune that General SLOCUM, who heads the Copperhead ticket in New York, was the originator of the famous ten cent contribution which it was proposed to flich from each of the soldiers, of the Army of the Potomac for the benefit of General MCCLELLAN. This attempt at a forced law weekly and the soldiers will miss their usual weekly once was in the car on the Pennsylvania railroad in which nine persons were killed in a forced law weekly and the soldiers will be seen that the soldiers will be seen the soldiers will b a forced levy was made after McClellan's removal, and was in ended as a rehale to the Government for removing him. The Secretary of war, regarding it as a scheme to ex ort money from the soldiers, squelch ed it, and the army was saved from the disgrace that SLOCUM and his friends had disgrace that SLOCUM and his friends had devised. The revelation is valuable as showing how the Copperheads were promptions of the country. In the course of a showing how the Copperheads were prompdate.
