Dr. George H. Keyser.

Dr. tteorge H. Keyser, Ut itu Wood street, Piltsburgh, Pa., has been stoppiag in our sity for the past week, at the Uni-ted States Hotel, where he will remain until the close of the present week, with an assortment of Trusses for the cure of Abdominal Weakness, Pilter, Pulmonary complements and Shouldan D. ionary complaints; and Shoulder Braces for explanding and enlarging the obset. Dr. K. also treats all cases of Crouked Spine, how kers, ard most cases of contracted limbs, and every va-riety of disease in which mechanical remedies are applicable. The Discher Lextwork less nicht might be washed, and cooled, and cleansed a'ter the long summer heats, both riety of disease in which mechanical remedies are applicable. The Doctor lectured last might on these subjects to grappe and respectable audience in Kilgore Hall, andwass instepod to with marked attention. His lectures are scose jungly interest-DE, even to those who do not require his aid. We learn that he will probably lecture again to aid. At the same place. The lectures up to this time have been free, but he prophets to night to make a small charge in order to dafray the expenses of the Hall.
