MEXICO. Cen. Looar, of Illinois, has accepted the appointment of Minister to Mexico. Has is appointed, be it understood, to this man public of Micrico, and as he has, in his late speeches in Dev. York and New Jersey, suppliance in stated his conviction that it is m diff of no United States government to by the wickedness of the local officials. abe trail foreign poyernments to get out of Boater at a property is a significant notice to Marsas that the President hearthy concurs with treat Louis in that

It is well known in New York that Com Looks was identified with the movements there in aid of the Liberals in Mexico; and he will be able, no doubt, by his presence with the Liberal government, to contribute valuable assistance to the Liberal cause from his large military experience.

In connection with that appointment, it is to be noted that Gen. GRANT, in reply. ing to an address of welcome estended to him in New York, toek occasion to endorse cordially an expression used by the speak. er that it is our duty as a mation to prevent the establishment of a monarchy in Mexica There can be no. doubt that Gen. GRANT is as extreme in his views on this point as Gen. Logan; and as he stands at the head of the ermy and in confidential relations with the President, his open declaration against the further foreign occupation of Mexico is very significant. The Lieuten. ant General is usually very reticent; but on this subject he has no concealments.

In all these indications, the French and other foreign governments may see what dingers are ahead of them. They dare not provoke ha to a war; and the moment they realize that we are in earnest, they will sleze upon the first opportunity of getting out of a bad scrape.

FLORIDA.

We were a little too fast, it scems, in stating that Fiorida was an exception to the Southern rule of yielding as little as possible in trying to get back into the Union. Its Convention did not, as at first reported, declare the ordinance of seces aborten, declare the ordinance of seces-sion 'null and vois...' but adopted a new dodge, declaring the ordinance "an-nulled." There was considerable discussion over propositions to pronounce it null and yold, and to declare, as did the North Carolina Convention, that it always had been null and void; but the majority would not accede to citier of the latter forms of wording. Now, annulling the ordinance means nothing more than repealing it, but the contrivers of this trick imagine that they can deceive us, by the sound of the word, into believing that it is equivalent to declaring the ordinance null and void. Governor MANYE had recommended in his message that the words "null and void from the beginning" should be used, but the Floridians refused to do so, alloging that to pass it in that form would be, in effect, io, stultify themselves and admit that the occase of blood and treasure expended mains to be seen. during these four years of horrid war had been without the semblance of reason and

THE JAHAIC & OUTBREAK, The disturbance in Jamaica, as we have before stated, was a more local outbreak, sad was confined to one parish, that of St. Thorna in the east. The Jamaican authorities, it is true, were terribly alarmed about it, and summoned armed help from all quarters within reach, thus betraying a onsciouences that the outbreak was the result of their misgoveriment, which they sup-posed would naturally extend wherever that misgoverment was felt. "Guility con-sciences, ""it is said, "need no accuser." The fiendish cruelty shown in putting down this outbreak will go far to justify most successful deeds to some impulse of sug-geston that came to us when we were not seek-strif for it, when our minds were rather receptive than active. Some things are given to us frely which we could never grasp, and they are among our best; it may be humbling. but it is true. One writer would have a clear distinction made between hainess and idiness. It is not an uncommon thing to hear well to know what "going in" means. I nen say that they are never, quite well, when Men say that they are never quite well when they are idle; that they feel indigestion, hend-sche, loss of appetite, languor and what not. This is because they are only idle, not lazy. Their brains and their hands have ceased to work, but no moral chance has come over them. The idleness in which most men induge is but a temporary change of habits. The idle-ness which is laziness involves a change of character." he does not, his triends across the Channel can enlighten him, for the phrase appears to be a favorite one there. In the last num ber of "Our Mutual Friend," Mr. George Sampson and Miss Lavinia Milfer have a small tiff, and George advises Miss Laviny to "go in." That young lady, of course, secomes indignant and announces that she has no idea of "going in." Gen. is to find another such friend. Hear it: "Are we at the merry of the Republican party, and are we to continue at their mercy? What shall we do? How shall we oppose them? These are the questions to be dispassionately pondered at the South. We hear a great deal said about the "Democratic party." Where is the Democratic party? It is precisely where the old Federal party was at the close of Mr. Jefferson's first term. Are we to fight a live thing with a dead one? No, there is another way, and we must find it."
