Finance and Trade in New York.

New York, Nov. 28.—The Stock Market telesitating and weak. The interest in the shallradd list is confined almost exclusively to chique movements, which are progressing very unsatisfactority to their promoters, and the outside public stand aloof through fear of corners. At the morning board to-day the volume of business was very light. The Mexican news had a very unfavorable effect upon the market. At the second board the market was very heavy, and at the last board at had failed to improve. The speculation in North Western and Michigan Scuthern appears to have caused.
