The Loyal Man of Transasce, to the Loyal Man of New York, Grading:
We, the Union Central Committee of Tennesses, would not forego the present occasion of tendering you our congratulations on the gloricos result of your recent State election. The progress of the contest in the Empire State was regarded by 1yal men hers with the deepest anxiety, and the result is accepted as an evidence of the determination of your people to stand by and maintain the principles for which maion men everywhere fought and prayed for the past four years.

cverywhere fought and prayed for the past four years.

We rejoice at the result, because it evinces the confidence which the people of New York feel, and the same party which saved the Union from destruction at the hands of open enemies at the South, and false friends at the North, is till competent to guide and direct the affdrs of our hitherto imperitled but now restored Union.

We rejoice at it, because it will strengthen and encourage the heart of our noble President in the ardinous duties still devolving upon him, feeling that he can rely upon a generous support. We have every confidence that he will not disappoint the expectations of the patriots, by whose partiality he was under Providence, placed at the head of the nation, but will in all things prove himself worthy of that confidence.

With an abiding faith in the justice of our cause and the glorious destiny of our republic, we remain, respectfully yours.

RIVER NEWS.

Forest City......CordonParkersourg.

The river was falling slowly last night, with four feet large in the channel by the Monongahela pier marks. The barometer indicated a change in the weather. The pwind was from the East, and this, in connectionly with the facts that it was cloudy felt like vain, and that the smoke fell to the ground as it came from the chimneys, leads us to suppose that rain is not far distant. At Oil City there were 30 inches of water, and good prospects for a considerable rise. The weather was cool, but not uncomfortable so. Business at the landfor a considerable Fise. The weather was book, but not uncomfortable so. Business at the landing was rather brisk.

The Emma Graham, Capt. Stull, left last evening for Zanesville—direct. The look in the Mushingum having been repaired, she will go through without any difficulty.

The Pine Greve, Capt. Maratta, left for Louisville. She was loaded to the water, and will go through we think without any difficulty.
