heard said going down. I went to Early's, and staid there till daylight. Saw nothing of the fighting. After it was over I saw the fiddler dying; one man (Soaden) was etanding at the door, with a knife in his hand and saying something; he was the last man to leave of the party who came down with me.

"Croise-tramfined—I was boarding ong quarter of a mile from Early's; had not seen the defendants before that night. We went down the railroad from Coultersville; we stopped at Alpsville and got a candle, as it was very dark; some of them got, cigars; saw Jackson in the store; and he came with us. Isase Edmundson, constable of McKecaport, testified that he had a conversation with Herrington, subsequent to the killing of Hrissi lin.

Mr. Kirkpatrick proposed to prove by witness that Herrington, about four days after the killing of Brissillo, made admissions concerning the transaction.

Mesars. Swartswelder and Cochran moved for a verdict of not gully as against James Jackson and Stewart Smith, scales is how, they contended there had been no evidence elicited sufficient to justify a conviction.

Mr. Miller, for the Commonwealth, contended that there was evidence going to show a combination of the part of all of the defendants, and that thus was not a question, for the court, but for the jury.

Mr. Swartswelder called attentions to the fact that in the opening of the case the commonwealth's efficient, or his representative, had staked that as against Smith and Jackson the facts might not connect them with the transaction, particularly in the case of Jackson. He shought the endeavor to submit the case to the jury, as to all the defendants, exhibited a lack of charity.

Mr. Miller said thry wore not now to be seed acced into an argument upon the facts. That there was some evidence going to show a common purpose, could not be devied, and therefore the question as to the guilt or innecessee of the question as to the guilt or innecessee of the guestion as to the guilt or innecessee of the question as to the guilt or innecessee of the question as to the guilt or innecessee of the question as to the guilt or innecessee of the question as to the guilt or innecessee of the question as to the guilt or innecessee of the question as to the guilt or innecessee of the question as to the guilt or innecessee of the question as to the guilt or innecessee of the question as to the guilt or innecessee of the question as to the guilt or innecessee of the question as to the guilt or innecessee of the question as to the guilt or innecessee of the question as to the guilt or innecessee of the question as to the guilt or innecessee of the question as to the guilt or innecessee of the question as to the guilt or innecessee of the guestion as to the guilt or innecessee of the question as the guilt or innecessee of the question as the guilt or innecessee of the guestion as the guilt or innecessee of the guestion as the g alc at Early's house, and went in, with others, whilst the dancing was going on. He saw a man at the bed-room door waiving a knife; it it the time be (witness) cauryth hold of the first was against Smith and Jackson the facts the fight rying dead at the foot of the stairs, after the defendants had gone away.

Crossi-examined.—When I got to the house, about it on o'clock, all was quiet and pleas native. The room was crowded and could scarcely got a place it os it down. There boys?" came with me. O'clock, all was quiet and pleas native. I was in the dancing room, sitting at the first was not a defendant, were in the buse when the first when the first came it is not the stairs, and as the first place is the first was some evidence going to show a common purple, and the direct when the first came it is not the dancing room, sitting at the first place is the first place in the buse when the first when the first came it is not play in the second place.

Charles Sharr, also at Early's, testified first to the Gilkey, "I should have a dance." Hand the stepped up to dilkey and said, "Yon a lil have to play," Shaiden was all to witness. Place is the first place in the stepped up to likey and said, "Yon a lil have to play," Banakan was all to witness. "Mr. Kirkpatrick proposed to prove by witness that Jackson said.

Mr. Kirkpatrick proposed to prove by witness that in the opening of the case to the fact when the first was half past ten or cleven.

Mr. Howard objected to witness testifying to who was king to the play in the case of the defendants. He intended the motion, but three out to intended the motion, but there was but sil

At a dance of the character show, where ale was liberally dealt out, it would not take a great deal to start a row. Ryan was very drunk, complained of being for the character show, where almost or show a start a row. Ryan was very drunk, complained of being for the control of the country and finally struck. At Gowan, Gallagher, hearing of this, took up the quarrel, and in his manner precisely was the fight brought on. Knives were used in the meice and fass, in the beat of blood, and hence the offence could amount to no more than mantanghier, unless the jury believed the defendants sought the quarrel and were present in pursuance of a combinat on. This they would prove was not the case.

Joseph Robinson, the first witness called, testified that he had known Smith and Jacks on almost all their lives, acd that they had always borne the repotation of penceable, quiet men.
