BENN LOOK OUT FOR BARGAINS FOURTH NATIONAL BANK. Merchant Tailor, A. GARRISON & CO. at Liverpool i They were not primorrs of war, for no war existed; now, if it did, could we as new-irals nake prisoners? They were not within the reach of the criminal law until some defin-lie charge was preferred against them, and this does not appear to have been done. They may still, of course, be keept under the surveillance of the police, but we cannot further restrict their personal liberty. " In the meantime it is funch to be regretted that ampthing fits demenaturations of sympathy should be made in their flower. Sallors are naturally hospitable, and it was perhaps natural that Capt. Waddell and his associates should be "trented with the utmost kindness by the odi-cers and men of the Donegal." But why steps should be taken to provide for the erfort until they can obtain employment, or why any su-perfluous courtey should be shown to the offi-cers, we do not provide to materstand. The Contracts faith in the capabilities of the Nei-trons. for adl: government, declared it to be a very respectable assemblage, and its delibera-tions entitled to high consideration. A candid world is bound to acknowledge its proceedings as the gravest exhibition of progressive ideas the State has ever known. The Convention adopted an "Address to the White Inhahitanis of the State of South Caro-lina," the "Petition to the State Legislature," the "Declaration of Rights and Wrongs." and last, but act least, the "Memorial to Congress," which it was the last care of the Biainees Com-mitie to report to the Convention. These doc-uments will commend themagives to the heart and intellect of liberty-loying man and woman throughout the world when the fact is mentioned that they were all framed by and came warm from the blood and brain of despised blacks, un-aided by even a word or line from the pan of a white man. ment. decl red it to be The very sultable PAR in InAND FOR HALES the very sultable PAR in In Elitabeth Sown-hip, Alleghean county, Pa., containing on the Monongahels River for more than half a min in Part No. 2 No. 15t.
