NO. 86 FIFTH STREET, PITTSBURGH COMMUNICATIONS INTENDED FOR THE EDITORS, SHOULD BE ADDRESSED GEDITORS GAZETTE." CORRESPOND BE ADDRESSED, SIMPLY "GAZETTE," PITTSBURGH, PA

MONDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1865.

THE name of Mr. F. B. PENNIMAN WILL hereafter appear at the head of our columns as one of the editors of the GAZETTE, and we take great pleasure in announcing that he will henceforth devote his entire attention to the paper.

Sir. Penninan has had a long experience as a newspaper man in this State, is thoroughly acquainted with the interests and resources of Pennsylvania, has been for many years intimately associated with the leading public men in this and adjoining States, and wields the pen of a ready writer, and is in all respects a very desirable acquisition to the editorial force of any

We do not think it necessary, at this time, to indulge in any special promises as to the fature, but we deem it a fitting opportunity to say that we shall endeavor to make the GAZETTE worthy of the patron. age of its many friends, and up with the times on every topic of public interest.

The coming winter will bring up for discussion many grave questions affecting the honor, the dignity and the interests of the nation and of the State. In all of these discusaions the Gazerre will take its part; and we trust its shere in them will be borns with such ability and earnestness as will satisfy those to whom it addresses itself. We are satisfied from our knowledge of Mr. Penniman that, under his management, the GAZETTE will be able to take the front rank among the journals of Western Pennsylvania.

ENLARGEMENT OF OUR AFTER-This afternoon the evening edition of the GAZETTE will be enlarged to the full size of the morning edition. This is equivalent to the addition of twelve columns of matter daily. The price of the two editions is made equal, not by increasing the price of that of the afternoon, but by reducing the price of the morning paper to that hereto- rows of the present and beckon on the refore and now charged for the evening pa-

We have sent forward an order for a new dress of type for both editions, and until it shall come to hand we bespeak the forbear. ance of our readers. We have other changes in contemplation, yet more imporiant, which we trust will put the GAZETTE on a foundation of increased usefulness and popularity.

OUR SPECIAL DISPATCHES. With the opening of the session of Congress, we have renewed a former arrangement for special dispatches from Washington. So many important topics will be discussed at this session, that these dispatches cannot fall to be perused with interest.

When the founders of the republic, on the Fourth of July, 1776, asserted, against prescription, the dignity, sacredness and frite destruction is thrown upon the na an Liberty, they made | ticnal authorities. an august appeal from existing codes and constitutions to the elemental idea of government, embodied in the consciousness of act of abolition; the second is to claim, the race. That idea is the true source of hereafter, from the general government governmental organization and authority. Hence it is the only genuine bond of ha-tional unity, and, imperfectly as it has who imagines that these Southerners have been exemplified in practice, is the real cause of that marvelous development of population, wealth and knowledge, which a made this nation, not simply the wonder of these times, but at once the envy of tyrants and the admiration of oppressed

In what grander words could the fundamental principle of government have been spinounced? "We hold these truths to be self-evident that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain in allenable rights among which are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness." So far as the nation has held to this sublime Declaration it has enlisted the sympathies of the wise and good of all climes, and has conserved that unity of idea, of feeling, and of interest which is the condition of Happiness, Prosperity and Rehown.

But in the grand purposes of Providence. for uplifting the nations from the depths of old Oppressions and Tyrannies, this depar-Lure could not be permanently established.

Figure this eccentric Earth forsakes the Sun awhile, careering fast and far away; but the Attractive Power prevails at length, and the returning Globe comes round home again.! So the republic, after deny ing that primal idea, which is the element of its power and crowning glory-after championing the spirit of Caste and Exclusiveness, in its most unworthy and detestable form, until even the proud despolisms of the Old World hissed for very scorn -has stripped off the disgraceful excrescence of slavery, and stands forth to-day fullorbed and resplendent.

The new birth of a nation, like the birth of the individuals who compose it, is not joyons, but grievous—is ever accomplished through lears, and groans and agony. Even the make does not shed his old skin joyonsly. But in solltide, darkness and gloom. erased from our national banner. Not an inch of territory has been abandoned. A single right has not been obliterated or obscured. Only inexcusable rebellion has succumbed. In this great contest, morever, the resources, the energy, the wisdom the might, the endurance, and the moder ation of both people and government have been signalised. The pation has been so grandly elevated that the sky is neare than it was before. Other nations gaze, and wonder much. Popular Liberty and Representative Government rest on a laund-

Negno Doctoring.—A gentleman in Alabara, lu exerting himself one day, felt a sudden pain, and fearing his internal machinery had been thrown out of gear, sent for a negro on his plantation, who made some pretensions to medical skill, to prescribe for him. The aegro having investigated he cause, prepared and administered a dose to he patient with the utmost confidence of a speedy cure. No relief being experienced, however, the geutleman sent for a physician, who, on arriving, inquired of the aegro what medicine he had given his mister. Bob promptly responded, "Resin and alam, sir!" "What did you give them for!" continued the doctor. "Why," replied Bib, "de alum to draw the parts togedder, and de reliant o sodder um." The patient eventually recovered.—Charleston Courter. COLT'S,
