TUESDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1865. THE DEMOCRATS AND THE NEGRO.

At the State election held in Massachusetts on the first Tuesday of last month some peculiar incidents transpired, illustrating the readiness with which democratic leaders, notwithstanding their professed ab-dorrence of affiliation with black people, hold their principles or prejudices in abeyance when votes are to be gained thereby. At New Bedford the democrats nomina ted a black man for Representative in the Legislature. This is the first instance, we think, in which either of the great polltical parties in this country have brought forward a negro for support as a candidate. The case stood thus: Judge Portion was up for re-election to the Senate. He had made himself obnoxious by uncommon zeal fir Temperatice. To defeat him it was necessary to draw off some of the republicans. This the democrats resolved to do by putting a negro on their ticket, and thus gain the colored voters. They did so defeated PITMAN, but did not elect the

At Boston, in the Beacon street district, the blacks asked the republicans to nominste Mr. S. S. SMITH, one of the proscribed race, a gentleman of education, refineent, and ability, for Representative, This the republicans did not do. Promptly the democrats offered to nominate him. But he and his friends respectfully declined the tender. They would not consent to the con-tamination of such association. Living in a district noted for the courtliness of its white inhabitants, they aspired to the best affiliation and would accept nothing less.

In former times black men voted in Penn men. Such inquiries as we have instituted in various parts offthe Commonwealth lead to the conclusion that our blacks were not as fastidious as the negroes of the aristocratic district of Boston, Almost without exception they voted the democratic ticket. of the zeal with which the democratic leaders drummed up their black fflends and to that effect. brought them to the polls. In particular the description a gentleman, widely known and honored for his intelligence and loy- ject. The sentiments of the two Houses alty, gave us of a controversy he got into are not in doubt. They will do their duty in early life, by challenging the vote of a wisely, courageously, promptly. black democrat, who was born in St. Domingo, and had not been naturalized here, The democratic leaders were trate that "an old citizen, of character and substance should be insulted by a stripling." Their phraseology was just as courtly toward the longed to the upper circles of the dom-

But in our researches into the matter we never could ascertain that any white Democratic magnate had invited a black con frere to his house to dinner, or seated him in his pew at church, or married him to his daughter. There is some evidence to show that on election days, when contests ran high, black and white Democrats went to the polls arm in arm; and that in matual jubilance over a victory, anticipated o achieved, they hobnobbed over their whisky. It will not do to draw damaging inin hese cases the Democratic leaders only secured black votes precisely as they habitually secure thousands of white ones. When fishing for votes these gentry do not scruget, after an election is over, to make such reprisals as appears their humiliated dig-

We have a lurking suspicion that if negroes should: again be allowed to vote in Pennsylvania the Democrats would prompt-IV resort to their old faction to seems their suffrages; and that, for one day in the year, at least, a negro would be accounted by hem as sa very as a white man.

MR . WINTER DAVIS, of Maryland, is a man of large intellectual Ability. He has qualities higher and more conspicuous. These are Directness and Sincerity. He says precisely what he thinks, if he speaks at all, and that is a great virtue in a public man, considering how common masks and subterfuges have b come. There is, however, a dash of cynicism in his nature.

ever, a dash of cynicism in his nature, which leads him to put, not the best, but the worst, construction on the motives of men from whose judgments and polleies he kappens to differ.

All these peculiarities of his mental organization are brought out with special vividness in a letter in the New York Nation, in which he treats of Reconstruction, in which he treats of Reconstruction. There is intense cleamess in his attements, a wonderful cogency in his aritism, in a selfcate and scarching seru they in his analysis, seldom matched in performances of public men in this country. It is this remarkable combination of powers that fed Judge Boards and the winter that the Joans and the state of the light services of the silicra, in the coldifornians have made the beginning of the Silicra services and therefore the silicra in the people of the services of the silicra in a year should be fulfilled. West of the Silicra, the Californians have made the beginning the services of the silicra; the Californians have made the beginning the surprised it to promise of the silicra; the Californians have made the beginning of the Silicra should not be surprised if the proposition of the silicra; the Californians have much headway in building the raditoral services, we should not be surprised if the proposition of the road from the Pacific ocean to the Newsda settlements as assured.

Mayon or New York — As called the best the pass selected for the commencement of operations—at the passing the tendent and the work can be distanced for the commencement of operations—at the pacific remains of the work can be distanced for the commencement of operations—at the pacific remains a selected for the commencement of operations—at the pacific remains of the work can be distanced for the commencement of operations—at the pacific remains of the work can be distanced for the commencement of operations—at the pacific remains of the work can be distanced for the commencement of operations—at the pacific remains of the work can be distanced to the w statements; a wonderful cogency in his ar a summation, a delicate and searching serm thay in his analysis, seldom matched in performances of public men in this country? It is this remarkable combination of powers that led Judge Bonnio bay last winter that his Dayns furnished the mains for the Republican party of Maryland. Having said this we may be pardoned for igressing is a snough to say that Judge Bonn, if he were not a modest man, might said, lay claims to rank as a not unequal yold in low with his emiteent friend.

my Division party of Mayland. Haying said this warms be pardoned for the Regular and provided for the Pacific occan for Mayland. Haying said the warm not a modest man, might saich lay claims to rank as a not unequal yoka-factory in this letter. Mr. Davis incriminates. In this letter, Mr. Davis incriminates. President Johnson in a way and to an extent which finds small response in our independent of him. Let that pass; and see how admirably he handles a point often related and pressed as involving serious, if met insurmoutable, difficulties in the way of a genuine Reconstruction of the States is the provided they are not controlled to the pass of the managers of covernment; a hold it is the way in the part of the remains of the government. If Congress in inks the State has constituted an oligarity of an aristic cover of the remains of the government. If Congress inlinks the State has constituted an oligarity of an aristic cover of the manager of paraments of the government. If Congress inlinks the State has constituted an oligarity of the case before courts.

Mayon or New York as very party and clique in New York is vining out a candidate or Mayor and the whole batch. Here is hus platform: "If am whole batch. Here is hus platform: "If an extend and pressed and again the whole batch. Here is hus platform: "If an extend and pressed and larger, they will grow and foam in the case will be not cholers if I am elected, and as for read and larger, they will grow and foam in the case will be not cholers if I am elected, and as for read and larger, they will grow and foam in the case will be not cholers if I am elected I will make every parament reflect the purity of the effects and and approved the season which under the parties of the world be I shall vote for myself again, as in relations to provide a shall vote for myself again, as in relations to provide a shall vote for myself again, as in relations to provide the parties of the way to the remain of the parties of the parties of the parties of the parties of the pa lately in Rebellion. Here is what he says:

"The States have the right to prescribe who, shall yote, but they have no right so to exercise it as to create an oligarchy or an aristocracy instead of a republican form of government; and it is the right and duty of Congress to ladge this question; and its plagment is final and concitaive on all departments of the government. If Congress thinks the State has constituted an oligarchy or an aristocracy by its law of sufrage;
it is entitled and bound to refuse to racoglike it, to annut the law, rescens the propole it is entitled and bound to refuse to recognize it to entitled and bound to refuse to recognize it to entitle the law, rescrict the people from its power, and prescrice measures and conditions for the longarization of a government, repgistion in form, in the suggested, over it he has no power. It is the duty of the President to security over it he has no power. It is the duty of guaranteing republican government it is the duty of the President to security over it he has no power. It is the duty of guaranteing republican government of desembling who are the Representatives and Senators carries with it the exclusive right of desembling who are the Representative and the state, the republican government of a State, for otherwise it might indiction of States whose governments are not of Sintes whose gevernments a blican in form or substance m."

The Conservatives made open war upon Mr. Colfax, for taking such thorough Rad. ical ground in his speech at Washington on the Reconstruction question; but Mr. COLVAX has been sustained not only by the unanimous vote of his Republican colleggues in Congress, but by our own Stafe Central Committee, the resolutions of which, already published, emphatically endorse the radical programme of the Spea-

State Cegual Committee with entire unanimity, endorses Mr. Colfax, and leaves incommon for doubt as, to-where the great problem party of Pennsylvania atlands on this question. Thus sustained by the State Committee on the other, we can well safford to laugh at those who would fain the service with the service wi afford to laugh at those who would fain

Never before in the whole history of this Government have loyal citizens so heartily welcomed the assembling of Congress as a this moment. The sword virtually closed its work, in the restoration of the Union, last spring. That work was done nobly. So far nothing was left to be desired. In the hour of final military triumph the National Government might have dictated any terms of reconstruction is deemed essential, and had them accepted. It hesitated to make such demands as were absolutely necessary to a permanent and successful rehabilitation of the Union. It temporised; and its policy falled.

On some accounts we are not sorry the experiment was tried. Its trial and its confessed impotency, have prepared the way for a better and more effectual experiment, and at the same time deprived objects of all reasonable ground on which to stand. The President himself is clearly dissatisfied with the want of cordiality and good faith with which his scheme of Reconstruction has been met by the controlling men of the South. His recent dispatch to Not a few incidents have been related to us | Governor Holden of Nor h Carolina is the last of a series of unmistakeable intimations

During the controversy on this subject, carried on throughout the late summer and fall; we showed conclusively from the proceedings of the Republican State coavention, which nominated the State stoket so triumphantiy elected in October, that that body was the first to indicate the views advocated by the Radicals, god that in defending those views we were defending the ground deliberately taken by the party to which we are prosent to belong.
