NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Senate of the Amer-lean-Fenian Brotherhood ssembled is extra session yeaterday inoralog, at their headquar-ters in this city. The extra seasion is stated to look into the matter of econouv and faithful-ness in the executive departments; the organi-zation demanding unusual probiby and prompt-ness at this time. The appointments of the New York officials under the new constitution, have never been officially, announced. The ap-pointing power resis with President O'Mahoney, and the Senate confirms. The Feniana express some satonialment at the roported splendor of their new headquarters on Union Square, as-suming that such magnificence must have made heavy drafs on the itensury of the organization. Unusual interest is attached to the seasion which it is atyposed will continue for several days. Yesterday the setson did not result in any bu-sinces which is yet made public.
