It may be proper here to state that, after the return of Mr. Gearing to this city, he was arrested at the instance of Mr. Millingar, as a rebel spy, and after trial of this cause it was fully established that he had never been engaged in any act of rebellion, inor taken the eath of allegiance to the so-called Confederacy. On the other hand, it was shown that he bad refused to take any part in the rebellion, or subscribe to take any part in the rebellion or subscribe to the oath, and for that reason the two boats above named were confeacated by the Confederate authorities. This statement is due to Mr. Gearing, as the fact of his arrest was widely published and freely commented upon by the press at the time.

The case was warmly contested on both sides, and excited considerable interest in the community. Measrs, John Barton, Robert Woods and N. P. Fetterman appeared as counsel for the creditors and Mr. Gearing, and Mcasrs. Hamilton and Acheson for Millingar.

Riot at Port Perry.

On the morning of the 2d inst., Jacob Welsh, Abraham Moore, Jr., Moses M'Michaels and Abram M'Michaels, visited the tavern of Mr. Lawrence, at Port Perry, and demanded liquor.

Mr. Lawrence was not'yet up, and the liquor was refused by his wife. The men then assault ed the house, broke the windows, kicked in the door, and attacked Mrs. Lawrence. An Information was made before Mayor Lowry, on Ta-sday, charging the defendants with riotal and warrants were issurd for their arrest. One of the number, Abraham Moore, Jr., was arrested and held to ball to-day, to answer a farther hearing. He alleges that he took no part in the riot, but simply assisted in keeping the others rounding almage. The fact will be fully developed on the hearing.

There is no improvement to note in the tone of the general markets, and the indications at present are not very encouraging for any increase in the volumeof business. The entire absence of anything like a speculative feeling, rostricts the demand for all of the leading commodities to supplying the immediate wants of retailers and consumers, and, therefore, we have no transactions of any importance to record.

CRUDE—There was apparently a little firmer feeling in the trude market to-lay, and there was not the same disposition manifested by holders to realize, that there was no Treaday. This may be attributed to the favorable tenor of the foreign news, and while, as already stated, there was a decidedly firmer feeling, the transactions were only moderate, and prices have undergone in quotable change. Sale of 400 bbls at 23, bbls returned; 428 do do at 28; 1800, in bulk part to arrive, at 29; and 200 at 23%, bbls included. nd 200 at 23%, bbls included.

DEFARTURES,

RIVER, WHATHER, ETC.

The river was rising yesterday, with five feet nine inches in the channel by the marks on the Monongakela pier. The weather was cold and cloudy, and the white frost which had fallen the previous night lay on the roofs of houses and bos piles until noon. In consequence of the the river, business was very brisk. The Kenton, Capt. Dunlap, came up over Glas ouse during the night, and was moored safely a House during the night, and was moored safely at at the landing yesterday morning.

The Kate Putman, Capt. Maratta, came up to the landing yesterday morning from St. Louis, She had a fair tip on board considering the water.

The Torktown, Capt. Wash Ebbert, is still receiving freight at the wharf, being determined to go out on top of the tise. She will most probably set off some time this afternoon.
