to the poer. Long established usage has made this the reason for pleading their claims. They come to va, while the acknowledgments of God's goodness are upon our Ups. We cannot orade the call by say int that we have nothing to give. 'Remember the words of the Lord Jassey, how he said, it is more blessed to give than to receive.'' Acts. 20: 25.
6. It is tenous us to reflect upon the everlasting Thanksgiving of the titler. The worship of Heavis is without wearioess or cresation.—Physicalists tell ma, that the heart is composed of a; hancele, unlike any either in the human frame; it is an exception to the general law under which owners are set of the come a sense of weariness rad a seed of rest. It is working increasingly, and finds its rest in laber. And can we not imagine, that this feculiarity of the heart singlished imparted to every murcle of the glorified Saint in Heaven.

2d. It is a peace that brings with it the promlett traitors.

2d. It is a peace that trirg: with it the promine of permanetce.

Our Government is preserved—preserved in its purity and integrity. Our institutions have came forth from the ordeal of civil strife like gold freen the cracible purified. And to-day we have, in letter and spirit, the same government given to us by our fathers. In its authority it is just as beneficent, and in its influence it is just as beneficent as it ever was.

Again, Slavery the great element of discord has been completely uproted by the war. And we are to bless God to-day that the foul blot of human bondage no longer stains the bright escutieshen of our national glory.

3d. We have peace without many of those evils which have usually, if not invariatily, followed all were, especially all civil wars.

Famine and pestilence twin sisters of the deamon of war, have not come upon the land with the bright daw all go of peace.

Our vast armice have been disbandoued, thousands-and hundreds of thousands of men, exposed for years to all the demoralizing intunences of military high have returned to their homes, and our rockal life has fell no strain. Many of them late returned purer and better than when they went forth.

went four purer and better I am when they went four.

In concinution, let us not forget that we have, alph dutic to perform. Let us remember that it is God the Lord who hith made light to attact and therefore we should bind with cord she sacriface of service and prayer to the horns of the silm. Believing firmly that God made Abrabam Littech what he was to us as a treatdent, in answer to the prayers of a Caristian people; let us not torget that the same power holds the beart of Audrew Johnson in His hand. And that the same trayer will make him an honor and a bleastig to a delivered and happy land.
