The steamers Tyler, Varina and Constitution, from Savannah on the 6th, have arrived.

The Savannah Resid states that G. B. Lamar and son were arrested for attempting to bribe a Treasury agent who had charge of captured cetton.

The Savannah Herald of the 4th has an important editorial, in which it adjures the Georgia Legislature to so act as to have the effect of restauring the North and strengthening the President in his pairlotic efforts to secure to the Southern States a restoration of their political rights. If this is not done, positive evil will follow. It advisas rach Southern State to come squarely up to the requirements of President Johnson.
