the editions of this afternoon and to-m row morning. OUR NEW DRESS. We hoped to start the year with our new dress. The type have arrived; but a few days mere are requisite to complete the arrangements. We begour readers to have THE MAYORALTY. As we shall issue no paper to-more morning we avail ourselves of this, the last opportunity, to say a few words upon the city election which takes place to morrow Whatever objections may now be urged against the system of nominating candidates by popular vote, there can be no doubt that it was adopted by the Union City Committee, in the nominations for the pending elections, in good faith. It was agreed, on all hands, after the events of two years ago, that the nominations for this election should be made in that way; and the City Committee, in directing the course that has been purrued, was but carrying out the instruc tions which it had received from the peo-

In executing that plan every precaution was taken to make the election a fair one. blicen Judges and Inspactors of Elections, chosen at the election last January, were selected to conduct this election. and the fact that they were the legal election boards of their respective wards was thought to be (and very naturally) a sufficient guarantee of fairness and impartiality

Having made choice of this special me. tood of conducting a nomination, and used due diligence in guarding against frauda. the Republican party of the city is bound in honor to sustain the nominations thus made. If the plan is defective its defects an experiment demanded by all, and for which Mr. McCantuy is in no way reson sible? Wavever any good accomplished by preferring a Democrat to a Republican, specially for remedying party grievances We appeal to the good sense of our readers to say whether it is not the supremacy of folly to turn the ci y into Democratic hands simply because a plan of nomination, which every one demanded, did not come up to the general expectation. The man who bit the same principle as the men who propose to vote for BLACKMORE because they do not like the system of nominating candi-

Mr. McCantur isithe regular nomines of support of every Republican in the city.

To vote against him is to vote against the party, and will be much more of an injury to it then to him. We have no fears that there will be many Republicans guilty of such suicidal folly, or that they can in any event defeat Mr. McCaptur's election; but we are anxious to save them from a step which they will ultimately regret, and therefore thus meson with them.

that McCartuy is in every way worthy of a cordial support at the polls to morrow. His long service in Councils has given him a knowledge that is invaluable in the Mayor apflice; and he possesses, besides, talents of no common order, together with stern honesty of purpose and unbending integrity. We know he will make a good Mayor and we call upon our friends to rally earnestly to his support, because we are certain that he is deserving of it.

And do not let any triffing considerations exoperate to keep you from the polls. Voting is a duty as well as a right; and those who take an intere's in city affairs, (and every good citizen should,) will feel under obligation to see that the right man is chosen for Mayor.

Discard all the humbug appeals that will be made by disappointed politicians and scheming wire-worker and treat all this clap-trap about "the People's Candidate" as simply bosh. The people had nothing whatever to do with bringing cut the the ndidate who has stolen their names, and we feel certain that the people will repudiate him with a decisiveness that will effectually rebuke such tickets, and prevent them for years to some.

TRIAL OF TEPPERSON DAVIS. The telegraph announces that the President, on the reassembling of Congress, will send in a special message explaining why the trial of JEFFERSON DAVIS has not been the trial of JEFFERSON ANTE has not been proceeded with. Legislation, touching the organization of the Federal Courts, in the second States, is needed. When that shall be granted the trial will proceed. There can be no question that the loyal shall be tried for his crimes, and, if convicted, that he shall be punished as the laws de mand. No same man asks for wholesale proscriptions, but there is a very general desire for the proper vindication of the dignlly of the laws. "Treason is the greatest of crimes, and must be punished as such," said President Jounson. In the case of the President of the Confederacy, there ought to be no question that such words are to be resolved into reality.

ATHydet.wn. on Thursday of last week, Poter Musajaged 73 years, was on his way to visit his dying brother James, uged 80, and when within a few rods of the house, was strack and killed by a passing train. James died the next day, and both were builed on the 231 inst.

REORGANIZATION. fant spring, immediately following the surrender of the rebel armies under the command of LEE and Jourson, the peple of the Southern States would have promptly accepted any fair condition the vernment had chosen to make prece dent to reconstruction. The President though without authority of law, assumed dictate four or five points as indispensable to any adjustment which would command the assent of loyal men. On neither of these points was he mistaken. In all of them there was acquiescence on the part of the t revolted States, though in some instances it was tardy. Delay gave time for the formation of political combinations, for the kindling of fresh hopes, and for the revival of the South is rapidly recovering from the attitude of a recipient, and assuming on all amportant questions, or any question. Here at the North we are as much sivided from one another in doctrines and motives as the South is separated in feel. ing and purpose from the republican party. We have always claimed freedom of thought and utterance for ourselves; and we concede that freedom, not grudgingly, but with all our hearts, to everybody else.

On this point what we demand is that there shall be perfect intellectual freedom at the South; that Mr. GARRISON shall be as free to stand in Charleston and express his sentiments on all matters of public concernment as Mr. Toombs was in New York or Boston. Slavery has been abolished, and author ity has been given 'o Congress to legislate for the protection of the freedmen. Not much practical value, it seems to us, can be attached to this second clause of the Constitutional Amendment. Whatever law or laws Congress may pass under this clause will necessarily derive their working effl ciency, if they obtain any, from Southern Courts and juries. No matter how excellent the provisions of the laws may be for affording redress of grievances to black men, in the present condition of Southern feeling they would be nugatory. Under our system, laws must depend for their enforce_ ment on the will of those who occupy the bench and fall the panels of juries; and these both will necessarily embody and reflect the shimating influences of the community of which they are a part.

Much must be left to time; to the sober second thoughts of the whites; to the ad vancement of the blacks in intelligence and wealth; and that pervasive spirit of Christianity, which, though long misinterpreted in the United States, is nevertheices the reat social regenerator, as has been evidenced over and over again, and never nore conspicuously than in its long contest with, and final extirpation of slavery from

can be remedied next time; out having deliberately chosen this method of deciding who the candidates should be, it cannot, with any regard to political (decency, turn upon its own work and undertake to remedy its deficiencies by electing a McClellan democrat to the chief office in the city.

No one questions the Republicanism, the Honesty, the Capacity, or the Integrity of Mr. McCarray. Why then should he be searchifeed? Will his defeat remedy any defects in a nominating system, which was

What more? Congress ought promptige to propose any amendments to the Constiention that shall be deemed by it just and necessary to ensure the rights of all sections and all classes, and to maintain amity and concord hereafter. Then let the States act on these amendments. If they shall b ratified, the work will be complete. By this course there is no occasion for a conflict between the President and Congress in smending the Constitution the Presihis note off to spite his face was acting on | dent is passive, or ought to be. He has no voice in that matter. The Constitution itself rigidly excludes him from participation therein. Congress and the States will be acting exclusively in their appointed, spheres We see no reason for believing the Presiden the Republican party, and as such he is is disposed to interfere, directly or indirect honestly and falily entitled to the vote and support of every Republican in the city. what seems to be good authority that the President is anxious to have the Constitution amended so as to apportion federal representation according to the number of voters instead of the number of inhabitants.

It may be he is in favor of still other changes. Whatever may be his personal preillections he has no official voice in matter, and no right to interpose. There are, however, other spheres is We speak what we know when we say which he has a potential authority; and no palpable encroachment on his prerogatives will be sustained by the people. Fortu-nately for himself and his office, he is armed with so vast a patronage that he stands n no peril from that quarter. All the dangor lies, if there is danger at all, in his us > ing patronage to corrupt and overawe the Houses. HENRY WINTER DAVIS IS DEAD. The telegraph brings the sad intelligence of the death of Mr. HENRY WINTER DAvis of Maryland. He was born in Annapolis in 1817, graduated at Hampden Sydney College; was elected a Representative in Congress from Baltimore in the 34th, 35th and 86th Congresses, serving on the Committee of Ways and Means. In 1863 he was elected to the 38th Congress, and ser ved as Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Affairs. He failed to obtain the nomiination for a seat in the present Congress. But the people of the Southern States are American citizens, Sooner or later those States must and will be restored to their old places in the Union, in the unabridged enjoyment of rights under the Constitution. The soener this restoration shall happen the better all round, only so that the conditions indispensable to future concord are compiled with.

It is stark felly to insist that Southern men shall dopt a particular type of ideas on all tapportant questions, or any questions.

ted its wisdom, mas equanty considers a Pittsburgh, sily of state.

It is eastedy necessary to ask a Pittsburgh, or Pennsylvania, reprientative whether he is disposed to favor the encouragement of American labor. It is only the agricultural interest of the West that wants to be convinced that it is not so much the Manufacturer as the Farmer who is benefited by this system.

ur heeded, as to the value of the policy that would below and spend at home under the protection of a range of duties smillelent to keep down excessive importations from abread. The farmer of the West now sees that he has prosperid as never before, under a system which though It may have temporarily advanced the cost of what he consumed has not even closed the merkets of the would against himself, if he can be considered of any crisible value to cass so wasting as a civil strile of 1001 years advantion with our resources not exhausted but developed under-tis-forcing atmosphere, is an equally good policy for a condition of peace, if we would render curselves truly independent of forcing powers, who have covied our greatness, and would make us their tributaries after having failed to achieve our destruction.

The Denver papers bring the message of Gov. Gl pin of Colorado, transmitted to the Legislature on the 16th Inst. The document is brief and patielic. It feets forth in a strong light the physical and g. ographical advantages of the new state, and urges vigorous and liberal legislation to encourage immigration, build rallegals and develop the latent mineral wealth of the State.

A Man named John Jones, living at Allanta, Georgia, sends the Wyandotte (Kansas) Gazete, the small sum of $50,000 Confederate money, and esks the editor to send the paper a month. GENERAL DE RUSSY having given permission, he propie of Mobile caused a performance at he theatre in that place, on Christman night, for benefit of the widow of Stonewall Jackson.
