A MARKET MEDLEY.

'Never made a better bargain sir. The stock sold last year at—'

'Four bits a ticket, cheap enough, and you ought to hear Johnny Reddin sing the yaller girl that winked at me,' and Nelly Whitney after that—'

'Knocked down' both nigger policemen. I was there and Joe said—'

'The conference will re-appoint Brother Matthews beyond a doubt. His successful labors the past year, have resulted in—'

'The sweetest baby you ever saw. It knows its papa as soon as it sees him, and mother says that—'

'He wasn't worth a d—n; bolted the first race, and was spavined at that. Why only two months ago he—'

'Found faith in believing and has since staid—'

'Peticoats done up that way always look so neat, and then with six yards of—'

'Benzine or pine top, you bet. Such liquor is enough to break up a Bible Society, and besides—'

'The bill makes suitable provisions in the first and fourth sections for—'

'A nigger baby about three months old. Its mother, you see—'

'Bolted it for about three hours with a mess of turnip greens, and I was so hungry that I eat most all of it; and then I—'

'Prayed so earnestly to know my duty; it was a solemn scene. I soon found—'

'Joe bit three axes, and a queen. He had the dead wood on 'em sure. Well then—'

'She loved him very dearly; but bless you he didn't know it. She used to kiss his photograph until one night—'

'The infernal bill busted. Jewbillikin! didn't it bust? I used a plaster of soap and sugar, and the moment it began to draw I had—'

'Twins the first year; Yes you're right. She is a bawdy woman, and last evening I found her—'

'Drunk in the calaboose. Am the policemen in the city couldn't stop her; she was worst card in the deck, and as soon as she gets out she'll go to—'

'The Baptist church. Ellen will be one of the bridesmaids, and she will wear a—'

'Stove pipe hat full of watch house dents. He wanted me to go on his bond, and I—'

'put in five breadths, and aunt Mary afterwards was kind enough to—'

'Choke the son of a tinker till he fairly bellowed. I ran down stairs and—'

'If you come round about seven, I shall be quite alone, and we can then—'

'Taken a little hot whisky punch over at John Lawler's; but I prefer straight drinks, because I find—'

'The ways of the Lord are truly wonderful and past finding out. Last year I—'

'Won thirty dollars at keno, and the next morning—'

'Got my bankrupt certificate, and before the week was out—'

'Was baptized just below Selma, where once—'

'Sarah Jane acted scandalously. A nigger young man never went—'

'To Wetumpka heavily ironed; he was caught about midnight a month ago, just as he—'

'Took a pew on the left hand side about half way up the aisle. I thought that the sermon was—'

'The biggest swindle out. You can't collect a red cent, and every member of the Legislature knows that—'

'His mother spanked him soundly, and sent him to bed without a morsel of—'

'Good brandy such as I generally drink, will make a man feel like—'

'Marrying early—so I say the women ought to—'

'Quit that you darned mutton head. I'll knock the stufin out of yer ef yer don't—'
