TELEGRAPH

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY RECORD.

Afternoon Dispatches.

A correspondent of the Yarmouth (Iass) Register says Cape Cod is washing away. He says: "Thirty years ago the salt mills along our shores where salt water did not come. Within that time they have been moved up on shore once or twice, and now at high tide the water is around them, or what is left of them. We find stumps of trees, and underneath peat, at what was once a regular mud swamp, one-fourth of a mile down our flats."

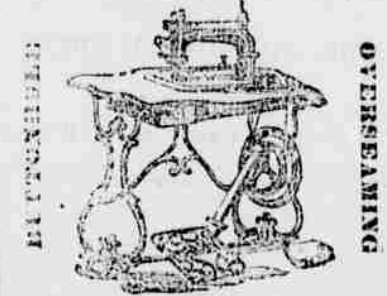

A quarrel over a game of cards in Vincennes, Indiana, led to blows with brass knuck'es. The man who was struck stabbed his antagonist with a huge hunting knife. Mortally wounded the bleeding man crawled to his house, loaded his double-barreled shot gun, tracked his enemy and killed him with a shot in the back of the neck.

A new game law has been reported to the State Senate, to apply to the whole State. It prohibits the hunting, killing or taking of deer or fawn between the first of December and the last of September of any year.

On account of the story which we publish today, a quantity of interesting reading matter is necessarily omitted.

A torpedo was exploded in one of the old wells on the Egbert Farm today.

"ALMISA"—It is not often that we have the time to spare, or the inclination to notice any of the thousand and one preparations sold throughout the country, such as it is claimed, being a sovereign cure for one or more of the ills that flesh is heir to. Indeed, we have frequently wondered that people ever died at all, or grew old even, when, by a small outlay they could furnish themselves with something which would keep disease at bay, and defy the assaults of time! Concerning the efficacy of one of these remedial preparations—and one which has become celebrated of late—we can speak from personal experience, and conscientiously say it is good. We refer to "Almisa," an article for restoring and preserving the hair, manufactured by Messrs. Seward & Bentley, Chemists, and Druggists, No. 189 Main Street, Philadelphia.—Inhalo Communicate at 45c. No slow sales for Seward's Cough Cure. A. D.
