TELEGRAPH

THE NEWS FOR THE DAY.

Afternoon Dispatches.

Pennsylvania, R. I., April 9. Complete report is also published. Republican for Governor, 1201 votes; Pierce, Democrat, 830. The Senate has 25 H. members and 1 Democrat. House of Representatives 49 Democrats.

The Pennsylvania Legislature has passed a bill, which only requires the Governor's signature to become law, authorizing the Governor to commute the death sentence to imprisonment for life or for any term of years, in his discretion, in the penitentiary of the proper district. Governor Geary, it is said, will sign the bill.

A telegram from New York says: "The opponents of the bill have taken a great advantage in the Assembly, in getting through an amendment which exempts large landowners from the payment of the bill. The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. It would appear, in order to carry the bill, the main point is to get the bill through the Senate. The bill is now in the hands of the Senate. It would appear, in order to carry the bill, the main point is to get the bill through the Senate."
