Duckerworth bad been arrested and com-mitted.

ing of the journal, Mr. Chandler offered a resolution declaring that in the judgment of the Senate the true solution of all existing controversies between Great Britain and the United States, will be found in the transfer of all the British possessions in North America to the people of the United States, and instructing the President to open nego-tiations upon that basis. Mr. Chandler took the floor and argued that he was the originator of the position he now held.

In concluding his speech Mr Chandler said that both France and England had staked their empire on this continent upon the success of the rebellion, which they had encouraged by every means in their power.
