A Determined Assassin.

The Philadelphia Star says: Our readers will recollect the attempted assassin of Samuel Temple at Yardleyville, Bucks county he having been shot at three different times while working in a mill. The cause has just transpired. A few mornings since, Mr. John Bitting of Newtown found a letter under his door addressed to Temple. It was dated New York, March 20th, and signed "Viola," in a neat hand. The writer stated that some two years ago she was riding near Fairmount Park, this city, when she was thrown from the saddle, and Temple came to her rescue. She fell in love withhim at once, and afterward wrote him two letters, telling him so. As he paid no attention to them, she resolved that no other woman should wed him, and employed four Spanish assassins at $1,000 apiece to kill him. She afterwards concluded to make no more attempts at his life, but she had not an opportunity to get word to her hired accomplice before the last attempt was made. She says she is wealthy, and highly educated; that she is now going to Europe, and that he is in no more danger, as she now has lost her love for him, and would not marry him. Temple says he remembers the circumstance of rescuing the lady; that he asked her if she was hurt; she answered in the negative.

The trial of Lemuhina Bowen, for the murder of Angie Stewart, in Canaan, New York, in 1867, commenced the other day at Hudson, New York.

Accounts of the safety of Mr. Livingstone, the African traveler, have been received in London. It is reported he left Zanzibar in January for England, going overland via Cairo.
