JAMES A. SHERRIFF.
Petroleum Centre, Sept. 2, 1898—17

A sensation has been created in New Albany, Ind., by Dr. P. B. Hoyt, of Norfolk, Ohio. He put up at the Depew House in that city in February last, in company with a very pretty woman, whom he represented to be his wife, and two children, aged thirteen and fifteen. He paid his bills promptly, and shortly afterward rented and occupied a house in that city. The woman stated that she was a native of Belfast, Ireland, and was to have married the Doctor, but that she afterward decided not to do so. She said she was the wife of a British officer who is in China, that she came with her child to Cincinnati, and went into the millinery business, and that, being sick, she sought the attendance of the physician above named—that the Doctor's bill was more than she could pay, and the agreement of marriage was accordingly made by way of settlement. She states that the Doctor has gone to Crawfordsville, Ind., and that he left a wife and five children in Newark, taking one child with him when he left that place.

The New York Express says the suspension of Frank Patterson & Co., packers and commission merchants, was announced yesterday.

VENANGO COUNTY, SS—The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the Sheriff of said County, Greeting: Whereas James V. Siggins has filed a claim in our Court of Common Pleas for said County against J. W. Sherman, owner and tenant, and T. S. Siggins, contractor, for the sum of two hundred and thirty-one dollars and fifty-one cents, for work and labor done and performed, and materials furnished for a certain lease, situated in Oil Creek Township, Venango County, Pennsylvania, on the Dawson Farm, so called and described as follows: No. 12, according to the map and survey and bounded North by lease No. 11, East by lease No. 13, South by the Bossen tract and West by lease No. 1, and containing one acre more or less, and held by written lease for twenty years or thereabouts, together with the property thereon situated and belonging to the same, consisting of engine, engine house, carpenter's rig, casing, tubing, 750 feet sucker-rod, two tanks (about 650 barrels) belt, awl, bolters, ropes and block.

And whereas, it is alleged that the said sum still remains due and unpaid to the said plaintiff: Now we command you that you make known to said defendant and to all such persons as may hold or occupy said property that they be and appear before the Judges of our said Court on the fourth Monday of April, inst., to show cause, if anything they know or have to say, why the said sum should not be levied of the said property to the use of said plaintiff according to the form and effect of the Act of Assembly in such case made and provided, if to them it shall seem expedient. And have you then and there this writ. Witness Hon. John Trunkley, President of our said Court, the 12th day of April, A. D. 1899.
