They have met again—Grant and Lee—but how changed the circumstances! This time the Confederate Chief, in a friendly manner, calls on President Grant. Let us have peace.

An amendment to the new Spanish constitution, recognizing the Catholic as the national religion, has been rejected. It is not to be His (or Her) Catholic Majesty in Spain, it will be "Hamlet" without Hamlet—the "Prince" will be omitted "by special request."

The Danforth House, at Pitmead, changed hands, May 1st, John Needham parting. The new proprietor, H. Becker, formerly of Oneida County, N. Y., is a gentleman of experience in hotel keeping, and in the palmy days of Pitmead was connected with the same hotel. We wish him success.

ACCIDENT.—John Nall, of the Pierson Farm, yesterday, while putting on the ball rope at a well, where he was employed, stepped into a coil of rope, which immediately entangled his feet, and before the engine could be stopped, he was drawn up through the rest of the derrick, and when freed from his position, his leg was found to be broken between the knee and ankle.

HENRY JAMES WILLIAMS, of Tennessee, who recently died at Graz, in Austria, was United States Minister to Constantinople under Buchanan. He had been educated at West Point and had edited a newspaper, which of course qualified him for any position. Mr. Williams founded the Bank of Chattanooga. He wrote several books which were popular in the South.

The Gordon will be a Jerrytree Run is a great winter visitor, every day from all parts of the oil region. One great feature of the oil region, when but such a short time ago, is the sand. The Gordon, which is sand, was nearly replaced by the "Run," still remains in the well, so long as there is gas to flow. It is hard to realize they will succeed in getting out, as the least slight air of the well causes it to blow so furiously. It is impossible for workmen to approach it. It is very dangerous about forty feet per minute. The blowing is spasmodically, only at intervals of twenty or thirty minutes. What the production will be when the wells are sent out, is hard to conjecture, but there is no doubt possible that it is the greatest will be greatly increased.

Remember the base ball meeting to be held at Atkin's Hall this evening.

The new velocipede school in Atkin's Hall, is filled nightly with parties desiring to master the science. Open every evening.

Yesterday the School Directors of this county met at Franklin according to law, and selected Charles H. Hale, of Franklin County Superintendent of Common Schools, and fixed his salary at $1,500 per year.

The following licenses were granted for Petroleum Centre during the present term of Court at Franklin: M. V. Miller, Oil Exchange; G. J. Cross, Central House; J. R. Barnes, American Hotel; T. Sims, Petroleum Exchange, A. D. Miller & Co., wholesale; George Howard, hotel; and Sharp, Noon-day House.

At about 3 o'clock this morning, a party of roughs, preambulating the streets in a state of intoxication, fell into and broke the large window of A. O. Farnham's billiard parlor; some fourteen lights of glass were demolished, together with the sash. Other places were also visited by the same party, with like destructive results. Our "cops" will soon be placed on duty, when we hope peace and order may reign supreme.

BING TOM.—A large and appreciative audience assembled at the Opera House last evening to listen to the entertainment given by Bing Tom. Tom is of musical inspiration, sightless from birth, and is a wonderment, a phenomena in one direction only, and that in his wonderful aptitude for the piano forte. An artist says there is no art about him; God has given him a guide, but it is a silent one—that of nature herself. He is a perfect prodigy. All who heard were astonished, but greatly pleased.

The Jay Cooke Forgeries.

About the beginning of April, says the New York Sun of Saturday, some excitement was created in this city by the report that the National Bank of the State of New York defrauded of twenty-six large checks, 1,000 dollars each.

The office of Lillard, Hoop & Co., Hanover Street, New York, was entered Saturday night by a boy, who, by six hundred dollars forged, was able to obtain a bill of exchange.

The chairman of the managers of the First National Bank in New York City showed their condition at the close of business April 17th, giving their liability and resources as $2,167,750.

The law fails to provide very distinctly in Alabama. Many of the streams are out of their banks. Much cotton and corn has been drowned. The rain will continue.

Farmers are much depressed.

DIAHAN OF LINCOLN'S SIGN-MORNING.—On the 12th ult., Mrs. S. B. Lincoln, widow of the late Thomas Lincoln and stepmother of the late President Lincoln, by whom he was probably very regarded (never having died while he was very young) died in Cole county, Ill., at an advanced age. Mrs. Lincoln, says the Doctor Major, had for many years resided with her grandson, John Lincoln, a wealthy farmer, who lives about nine miles southeast of Charleston, Giles county, near the line between that and Cumberland, and also near the little country village of Cington. She was much dressed in her old clothes, and took a deep interest in the welfare of her family to the last, and as her own mother could have done. It is said that she never spoke of her son's tragic death without tears, and the range of the world had no more sincere mother over his fall than she.

A NANNY BOY.—A child about two years of age, named James Parsons, who lives in the vicinity of Little Rock, Ark., last week fell into a well and was rescued by drowning in a bathtub containing water. The boy was half dead, and the child lay over and fell in. A man who was passing along a path some distance from the well, heard small voices from the well, who was drowning frantically around the well. The man got upon the bank and saw the annual hoop in the well. He ran to the spout and saw the child up holding the hoop. Both were immediately rescued, although the child was supposed to be dead. She was resuscitated with a stimulant, and is now all right.

Two cases of scalding were reported at Petroleum Centre, Mr. Carson, brother of Dr. Carson, was scalded, and the other by the boy, 12 years old, Peter.
