The late Ocean Telegraph—Suicide.

The Rev. Mr. Isay of Cincinnati has been delivering sermons in advocacy of hanging in schools, and he gave the Bible in support of the barbarity. Since the Civil War, the Christian ministry, not excepting Methodists, are religious. The Rev. Mr. Isay is but one prominent instance of this unnatural phenomena, in which a man going to the pulpit with a scourge of small cords, drives at those that bought and sold, and overthrew the tables of the money changers, and spurned those who sold doves. That Savior is not only conspicuous on the whipple question, but it is perfect Bible defense of a thief, or for a landlord taking the law into his own hands. Also, the Bible in the mods of expiation can be quoted in justification of every barbarity that disgraces the age.

The New York Legislature has passed a law to prohibit the publication of ignorant [illegible] cards, provides, under heavy penalties, that no person shall prepare a prescription unless he has served two years' apprenticeship in drug store, or is a graduate of a medical college or college of pharmacy, except under the direct supervision of some person possessing one of these qualifications.
