THE MUSICAL CONVENTOR. - The arrangements for the Musical Convention, to be held at the M. E. Chorch, in this place. commencing Monday. 17th inst., and continning tour days, promises to be a grand affair. The finals will be a concert given by the members of the Convention on the following Thursday evening.

A FREE FIGHT. - A disturbance occurred in the lower Concert Saloon, in this place. last night, which resulted in several sore heads and numerous smoked clobes."-Ben Hogan, the puglist, for interfering to quiet a disturbance, was assaulted. He has caused the arrest of several parties engaged in the affair, and the examination will take place before Justice Donaghy this afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon about three o'clock. Messrs. Carman & Dickerson again torpedoed their well, and with the most gratifying result. Immediately after the explosion, it commenced flowing, which insted only for a short time, when pumping was resumed, and up to ten o'clock last evening the production was at the rate of 250 barrels per day. Today the well is doing fully seventy barrels without any preceptible variation.

BILLIARDS-FRIENDLY GAME. - A friendly game of billiards (500 points) between two experts, will be played to-morrow evening at the billiard parior of Robson & Ar' Vespers and Benediction of the Blessed wold, the game to be called at 81, o'clock. Lovers of the game will be pleased to learn this fact, and no doubt a large number of spectators will be present to witness it. The apartments up-stairs, over the billiard parior, under the direction of Mr. Arnold, will be open to guests of the house.
