A Wife Living Peacefully with Two Husbands.
There is a very remarkable case of matrimonial felicity (?) in this city which is not generally known to the public. In the west division lives a woman with two husbands to each of whom she has been married in legal form. At the time the war broke out this woman was living with her first husband, by whom she had three children. At the breaking out of the rebellion he enlisted and went off in the role of "a brave soldier"

E. B. Ward, acting in behalf of the Rolling Mill Companies of Chicago, Milwaukee and Wyandotte, has purchased the entire interest of the Swedes Iron Company in Southern Wisconsin for $535,000.

The way to get up-set is to get set up. A grain dealer in this city is sowing his wild oats.

The most dangerous glass to the ladies—the mirror.
Some men appear born to rule, and some schoolmasters to the ruler.

There is a lady in this city so particular that she will not wear "low" shoes.
Mixed suits are only properly worn by people of motley character.

Mr. George Peabody has a large body, but his hand and heart are larger than either of them.
Young Peggs, who is out prospecting for a wife says a dumb woman will never answer for him.
Paper makers are supposed to be more wise than formerly, since they devote themselves less to foolscap.

Alisma.—Last week we called attention to the Constitution Bitters of Seward & Bentley, now we take pleasure in noticing their Alisma the latter, which is said to be a very fine article of the toilet. We are of the opinion that the preparations of S & B are all good, for the reputation they sustain as Druggists is good evidence that they would not put anything in the market of an ordinary character. Messrs. A. D. MILLER & C have it for sale and we hope all our friends will try it.
Oh for all French ailments, try Seward's Cure Cure.
