BRIGHAM YOUNG IN TROUBLE.—The following dispatch was published in the San Francisco papers:

"During a meeting on Wednesday, Alexander Smith characterized Brigham Young's system as the vilest infamy that ever blurred the earth. Brigham Young announces meetings every Sunday in opposition to the preachings of the Smiths."

The San Francisco Chronicle says: Up to a recent period Brigham Young himself was in the habit of saying that he held the leadership of the church in trust for David Smith, and that he would come among them, adopt all their habits and customs, including polygamy, and be their guide. He is now about twenty-four years of age, and is in Utah, claiming that by divine revelation he, and not Brigham Young is the rightful authority. The latter, however, is loth to give up his power, and not only has denied the sons of Joseph Smith the use of the Tabernacle in which to preach, but has absolutely forbidden the people from going to listen to them. The Gentiles in that city have a hall which was built for religious services at the time General Connor was in command at that place. The hall, now used by Episcopal ministers, has been placed at the service of David and his brother. The Mormons, in spite of the prohibition and threats of Brigham, flock in crowds to hear them. Brigham is said to be much alarmed, and does not know how to effectually end this new difficulty. The traditions of the church are in favor of David Smith, and the dissatisfaction is spreading fast and wide. It is even said that it had reached the very family of Brigham himself, and that some of them believe that the latter should give way. If the government will protect these young men, it may prove the best means of proving the Mormon problem. They denounce polygamy as not a true part of the Mormon faith, and they preach loyalty to the government and the abolition of the onerous tithing system. Though they have been but a few weeks in Utah, the effect is apparent, and it is reported that they have already a large number of adherents. All loyal citizens must cordially wish them success.
