A Wives to Wives - A fight has been waged as the following, which he wishes published for the particular benefit of whom it may concern.

A wife may love her husband and her children, and may perform her ordinary duties faithfully, and yet ruin her husband by her foolish ambition.

she is ambitious of fine clothes and high living. She envies every one more prosperous than her husband is.

Let a woman scatter faster than her husband can gather; let her religion be severe and censorious, and stand along the path of duty like a thorn bush hedge on a garden walk.
