THE DAILY RECORD is the best advertising medium in the oil region.

An excellent suggestion is made by an English druggist in relation to the dispensing of poisonous substances. He proposes that, in addition to the word "poison," the labels should have printed on their margin the appropriate antidotes for each class of poisons. A bottle containing a mineral acid, for instance, would have on its label:
POISON!
"If given by accident, give (mixed with water, chalk or soap, or whiling, or ceiling scrapings.)"
Similar labels might be printed for the various classes of deadly drugs. From the greater laxity of our laws concerning the dispensing of medicines, some such plan as this is more surely needed here than abroad; and if it were adopted we should hear of fewer deaths from ignorant overdosing or carelessness.

The eccentric Elder S—, well known to many as an active and earnest Baptist preacher, once said from the pulpit:—"They say tue.'s no family government now-a-days. But there is—just as much as there ever was; but" (leaping over the pulpit, and lowering his voice to a quiet and confidential tone) "the difference is this: when I grew up the old folks governed the young ones, but now the young ones govern the old ones."

Isaac J. Fowler, whose defalcation and disappearance many years ago when Postmaster of New York is well remembered, died yesterday in Chicago. His body is on its way to New York for burial.

While a mother was brooding over her poverty, her little son said: "Mamma, I think God hears when we scrape the bottom of the barrel."

The Great Yosemite Bitters.
All hail! great benefactor,
Who to cure us of our ills,
Gives life to the disconsolate,
Without noxious drugs or pills.—
Drives disease from out the system,
Fills the heart with life and light,
With the best of all the tonics,
Downer—Great Yosemite!

With root from out the valleys,
Where California's sun doth shine,
Giving wealth to us poor mortals,
Beyond the riches of her mines,
Wealth of health and happiness,
Its blessings none should slight,
Do you want it? Would you have it?
Use Downer's Great Yosemite.

Come ye sick, diseased, disconsolate,
Why should you pine and die?
Ye feeble, faint and languishing,
Come, these glorious Bitters try.
See how these quacks and nostrums,
Fiee from the land in flight,
Giving place to this pure tonic,
Downer's Great Yosemite! jul 24-tf.
