Speech of Attorney General Brewster last evening.

A large audience assembled at the Opera House last evening to listen to the distinguished lawyer and Attorney-General of the State, Hon. Regis H. Brewster.

The language of Benjamin H. Brewster is not soon to be forgotten by those who hear him address a public assembly, and his scholarly attainments eminently fit him for the responsible position he fills in our State administration.

The terrible disaster at the Indiana State Fair will probably result in the abolition of future exhibitions of this character, of the "racing" of dangerous machinery—a practice that has grown up of late years in the state of competing exhibitors.

The New York Evening Post takes strong ground against the acquisition of Cuba in any way. It maintains that the true financial and political reasons are opposed to it, and that on both accounts we should be "far better off without the annexation or control of the island."

On Friday night last the hardware store of Beecher & Copeland, in Warren, was broken into and knives, &c., to the amount of some $200 were stolen, together with the scrip in the drawer, amounting to some $3 or $10 more.

The Cincinnati base ball club sends a dispatch to its Secretary, Mr. Joyce, that it will arrive from California Oct. 16 and on the 18th will play on their own grounds a match game with the Athletics of Philadelphia.

A very beautiful dog was that advanced by one of the Methodist preachers in Conference, who said "He was a poor tripping mortal, but he always managed to stumble towards the cross."

Mosby, the guerrilla, has challenged Col. Boyd, Sheriff of Fauquier county, Va., and formerly a United States officer, on account of an attack the latter recently made on him.

TELEGRAPH

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY RECORD.

Afternoon Dispatches.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7.

The Age publishes a letter stating that on the 4th inst. Jim Quinn (colored) while in custody of the Baltimore County officers at Whitehall station, on the Northern Central road, on a charge of committing a brutal outrage on Miss Reip, aged 65, was seized by the people and hung.

It seems Methodism is good for the rheumatism, for an "old layman" in the Annual Conference at Franklin, said, "he once had the rheumatism, but the spirit of Baptism had cured him and he felt like a youth of 21."

That good old soldier of the Cross did not find Methodism a sure cure for the taste of tobacco, for "he once tried to quit the use of tobacco, but felt he would die without it and resumed the habit."

The chewing brethren were in a like fix with Macbeth, "I could not say Amen, when they did say God bless you," for their mouths were so occupied with the weed that "Amen stuck in the throat."

Instructions have been issued to the United States Assessors at Pitsburg to take a thorough re-enquiry for income returns. Every house is to be visited.

The new Opera House at Meadville is to be opened on Monday evening with a grand concert for the benefit of the proprietors. A succession of entertainments is arranged for the season, and Edwin Forrest is announced among the theatrical stars to appear.

Miss Middy Morgan, the lady appointed by Mr. Bigelow to the position of reporter of cattle markets for the New York Times, is a daughter of a fine old Irish gentleman, of the fox-hunting school.

Major A. P. Callow, the Republican nominee for Mayor of Allegheny City, is an old printer.

Use Morrison's Genuine Pine Tar and Persian Healing Soaps. These soaps are impregnated with exotics of the mildest and most delicate nature, and are warranted perfectly innocent and free from mineral and other poisonous adulterations.

These soaps are impregnated with exotics of the mildest and most delicate nature, and are warranted perfectly innocent and free from mineral and other poisonous adulterations, and are selected by the ladies and the public in general, in preference to all other soaps, as the great producers and preservers of a healthy purity of complexion, and a conservator of female beauty.

For the softness and delicacy which they induce to the hands and face, their capability of soothing irritation and a soothing, unobtrusive, and most indispensable to every toilet. We kindly ask the public to try the virtues of these soaps. J. L. H. & Co., Proprietors, A. D. Miller & Co., General Agents. Jan 21st.
