An ingenious man in Pennsylvania suggests, upon the impulse given to invention and improvement by the great disaster at Avondale, that hereafter, in mines where only one shaft is economically possible, a cylinder of cast iron of the size of a large water main, to set upright in that shaft, extending from top to bottom, with means of exit and entrance at each end, by which, in case of accident by fire or other cause, the miners can escape, is the thing to have. When the mine is exhausted, or its working is no longer profitable, the iron still has its original value - something that cannot be said of the usual shaft, which is only a hole in the ground.

The whaling schooner Susan N. Smith, of Boston, was lost in a hurricane, August 28, and all hands drowned with the exception of the captain of the vessel and four seamen, who, after remaining on the wreck, which was on her beam ends, for eight days and nights, without food or water, were taken off and carried to London in an English bark. The captain's wife and two children were drowned in the cabin.

The Great Yosemite Bitters.
All hail great benefactor,
Who restore us of our life,
Give life to the diseased,
Without noxious drugs or pills,
Drive disease from our system,
Eradicate the roots of our misdeeds,
With the best of all the tonics,
Bowers' Great Yosemite!

With root from out the valleys,
Where California's sun doth shine,
Giving wealth to our morning,
Beyond the ridges of our misdeeds,
Wealth of health and happiness,
To bleeding none should slight,
Do you want it? Would you have it?
Use Downer's Great Yosemite.

Come ye sick, diseased, disconsolate,
Why should you thus and die?
Ye feeble, faint and languishing,
Come, these glorious Bitters try -
See how these quacks and nostrums,
Pile from the load in flight,
Giving place to this pure tonic,
Downer's Great Yosemite! July 21-11.
