Arnold & Palfry are testing a new well on the Malory Farm this evening.

Col James S. Myers, of Venango county, is spoken of favorably for the U. S. Circuit Judgeship.

Ex-Secretary Seward is now travelling in Mexico, where he is received with honors befitting a king.

We learn that Dr. A. G. Egbert intends removing from Mercer county and will take up his residence in Franklin.

The amount of oil shipped from Parker's Landing from the first to the sixth of this month, amounts to 2,117 barrels.

Mr. Henry Clay Beecher, son of the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, has married Miss Frances Gertrude Snow, daughter of the late Mr. George M. Snow, once the commercial editor of the Tribune.

From a letter published in the Erie Dispatch to-day, we learn that Petroleum in large quantities has been found in Mexico. The writer says: "from three to four thousand barrels flow away daily for want of tankage."

The names of Messrs. Johnson of Crawford, Strang of Tioga, Webb of Bradford, and Adaire and Miller of Philadelphia, are mentioned in connection with the Speakership of the next House, and the canvass promises to be lively. Speaker Sisson of the Senate will be re-elected without opposition.

It is said that one of the Harrison brothers, arrested for implication in the great express robbery, had five thousand dollars of the booty concealed beneath a pile of potatoes at his residence on Green Island, and that after his arrest he gave the officers information of the fact, and the money was recovered.

There will be six eclipses in 1870, four of the sun two of the moon. There will be a total eclipse of the moon in January 30, in visible; a partial eclipse of the sun June 28 visible only in Australia; a total eclipse of the sun, December 25, visible in Europe and Canada.

Edward B. Ketchum was discharged from Sing Sing prison on Saturday. Sentenced to four years and six months imprisonment, his uniform good conduct gained him a commutation of eight months, making the time actually served three years and ten months.

A telegram from Cleveland, dated yesterday, says that J. C. Buell, Cashier of the Second National Bank, of that city, committed suicide this morning by shooting himself through the heart. We understand that Mr. Buell lost heavily in the gold speculation.

P. T. Barnum has contributed $7,000 to and in defraying the expenses of celebrating the centenary of Universalism in America. The Rev. Mr. Murray first told us in 1870 that we are all to be saved. It is proposed to invest a large sum of money in the celebration.

The East Brady Independent is a new paper published by Samuel Young, Esq., at East Brady, Clarion county. It is a free weekly and takes a popular course, politically. Some of our citizens have started a club for Samuel's paper. Good for Samuel, good for the paper and good for the citizens.

While Mr. Silas Corwin, a gentleman of eighty-three, was amusing himself by digging out clay in the yard at his residence by the river bank, at New Winsor, on the Hudson, he discovered a large earthen jar, covered by a flat stone. This jar contained 630 Spanish dollars, bearing dates from 1720 to 1773. The coins were still bright, and probably were never in circulation. Since the discovery, in the neighbor of New Winsor, spades have become tramps.

INCOME TAX.—The new regulation in reference to the income tax will not set well upon the stomachs of those who have hitherto steered clear of this onerous burden. Every house must be visited and the names of the inmates obtained. Persons who have no income to be taxed must make an affidavit of that fact, and those who have made no returns are to be summoned to appear at the office of the assessor, and in case of failure to respond, are subject to a penalty.

On the morning of the 5th, between 3 and 4 o'clock, the post office at New Portage, O., was entered by a burglar named Wm. Witner. The store in which the office was located had frequently been entered before and robbed, undoubtedly by the same person, and on this occasion the proprietor was watching and shot Witner, killing him on the spot. The thief was an old penitentiary bird.

SPECIE PAYMENT RESUMED.—On Saturday last an individual suffering from dilapidated teeth, called at the office of one of our city dentists, and after having the ruins of what had once been a shapely mouth refitted and inlaid with gold, he proffered in payment for the same eleven hundred copper pennies, which he produced from an old satchel, and which were put up in baking powder boxes of one hundred each. Upon the dentist expressing a dislike to such bulky payment, the Oil Creek Spinner said he had nothing else, and gave as an excuse that where he worked, at Petroleum Centre, the facilities for "knocking down" were such that he had to confine his attention to pennies, as the least likely to attract attention.

A LITTLE HEROINE.—At Hugwash, Canada, a few nights ago, the house of a family named Crowley having taken fire, all the inmates, except three small children had escaped, but these were sleeping up stairs, and the fire below made it impossible to reach them. Finally the mother's screams from without awakened the eldest, a girl not twelve years old, who came to a window and was urged by her mother to throw herself out, but she answered, "No, brother and sister must be saved." She then returned through the heat and smoke twice, and, after throwing the two younger children from the window, she let herself drop to the ground, a distance of sixteen feet, and when she arose said, "I'm done, mother; but I have saved my brother and sister from being burned up." The mother and children then walked 670 yards naked—for none of the clothing had been saved—to the nearest house, where the little heroine, terribly burnt, shocked with the fall, and chilled with the exposure, died early the next morning.

Nuts to Crack.

From the East Brady Independent.

Since Mr. Gillilan is so very anxious for re-nomination, and his friends so urgently back him up, would it not be well enough to inquire into his status as a representative of the people and his antecedents as a politician while a glimpse at his confreres might be an interesting subject for contemplation.

As a lawyer, Mr. Gillilan is not the equal of Daniel Webster nor so eloquent as Demosthenes. Indeed, his legal record is not so bright as that of many who are younger in the profession. His pleadings at the bar were not so touching nor so successful as his pleadings for a seat in Congress; neither have his cases been so intricate and perplexing as to seriously affect his legal mind and cause his few friends to fear that his great ability might drive him mad. The heaviest field he occupied prior to joining the legal profession, was that of Superintendent of Common Schools in the "Messer diocese." There his wonderful powers found all vent, and there he formed that exalted character for truth and veracity which so eminently distinguishes him, and has had the effect of keeping faithful a few men, who prefer truth where it does not affect their interest. This peculiar and happy characteristic has led him on, until good luck, or greenbacks, or something else, gave him a seat among the representatives of the nation. But here, as elsewhere, he is a listener, not a speaker. It is in only the private walks of life that he presumes to speak, and then only to a select coterie, whom he is posting on the modus operandi of securing his re-nomination. In Congress he is like "a boy at a hushing"—has nothing to say. Yet, within, he is dignified and somewhat pedantic in his manner; and those who do not comprehend the astuteness of his calibre, might mistake his silence for the wisdom of a Solomon. But the owl, too, is silent, and only utters a sound because the monotony of its daylight silence forces it to cry out when relieved of the glare of something brighter than itself.

He claims to be a Republican; yet it is said that he often splits his ticket and votes for Democrats. But, we suppose, an older and wiser head controls his actions, and as that head sits on good old Democratic shoulders, he is bound by the call of sympathy and obedience to follow the dictates of his factotum, Hobbs. We can not see where his Republicanism is, when his affinity runs in another channel, but we have known men to doff the calf skin and put on the robe of the lion, when anything was to be gained by it. This much for himself.

Which shall win—the man with his roll of greenbacks and brazen impudence, backed by imaginary Republicans, who have only their own battered axes to grind,—or the honest people, honest in their purpose?

That Excitement. Yesterday our reporter saw a crowd of men and boys in front of Wachter & Felzer's store opposite the Bank building. Soon all started on a rush into the store, thinking a fire or a fight might be the cause of all this great commotion. Our reporter breathlessly bolted in also, and found the true cause to be a raid by the people upon the splendid stock of Groceries, which W. & F. are almost giving away. They are determined to sell out their stock to make room for more that is constantly rushing in by every train.

So now is your opportunity to get your Groceries cheap.

TELEGRAPH REPORTED FOR THE DAILY RECORD.

Afternoon Dispatches. WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—It is understood that the President considers the present condition of our finances most favorable to a speedy return to specie payment, and in his forthcoming message will urge such a measure upon Congress. He is opposed to all tinkering with currency, and believes if the present Internal Revenue law be suffered to remain intact, and in another year such a tangible reduction of the Public debt will have been effected, as well as enable the Government to safely and materially modify the taxes of all kinds. The resumption of specie payments, the President argues, will prevent fluctuations in gold, and break up the influence of the gold gamblers and save the people from the ruinous effects of an irredeemable currency.

Reading, Pa., Nov. 15.—Robert W. Devine hung himself last night in jail, where he was confined for deserting his wife. He left a letter reproaching his wife for her evil ways.

LEWIS, Nov. 16.—Harrison's cigar factory Greenwell street, together with Clark's book depot and Wood's paper bag factory were burned this morning. Loss $15,000; insured.
