Sugar for Horses.

A gentleman in New York is the possessor of a $1,000 horse, whose organ for appropriateness is prominently active; he can be coaxed, but rarely driven against his will. When the considerate owner enters the stable the horse greets him with a hearty whinney, his only language, which is equal to a cheerful expression of delight. He is at once treated to a lump of loaf sugar which the beautiful and sagacious creature knows is usually carried in a vest pocket—for he rubs his nose directly in there. On returning from a drive he expects two lumps. As two are invariably forthcoming when unharnessed, it is unmistakable evidence to the horse that his conduct was satisfactory. The sight of a whip to that animal would be an insult and an outrage to his affectionate regard for one who looks carefully to his health, security and comfort. Such an instrument of barbarity does not belong to that good man's carriage, and may God speed the incoming day when they will only be seen in museums, to illustrate the condition of countries that ultimately became Christianized.

The Great Yosemite Bitters.

All hail! great benefactor,
Who to cure us of our ills,
Gives life to the disconsolate,
Without noxious drugs or pills—
Drives disease from out the system,
Fills the heart with life and light,
With the best of all the tonics,
Dewar's—Great Yosemite!

With root from out the valleys,
Where California's sun doth shine,
Giving wealth to us poor mortals,
Beyond the riches of her mines,
Wealth of health and happiness,
Its blessings none should slight.
Do you want it? Would you have it?
Use Dewar's Great Yosemite!

Come ye sick, diseased, disconsolate,
Why should you pine and die?
Ye feeble, faint and languishing,
Come, these glorious Bitters try.
See how these quacks and nostrums,
Flee from the land in flight,
Giving place to this pure tonic,
Dewar's Great Yosemite! Jul 24—tf.
