Respectfully invites his friends and the public generally to a trial of his superior made

BOOTS.

The quality of the material he uses is not to be excelled, the style of workmanship is unexceptionable, the latest patterns of fashioning used, while the prices charged are most reasonable, quality being the test of cheapness. Having had long experience himself, and employing none but the best workmen, he flatters himself he will be able to supply an article that will give satisfaction to all.

He will execute all orders entrusted to him promptly, and with the greatest care; and has great confidence that the articles he makes will be recommended themselves, after a fair trial.
